SHENANDOAH AT SAN DIEGO; LEAVES FOR
DESTINATION TODAY

By WILLIAM G. CAYCE
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.)

North Island, San Diego, Calif., Oct. 11.—Two of her three 500 horse power motors having been repaired during the night, in addition to taking aboard a quantity of helium gas, gasoline, water and other supplies, the U. S. Navy rigid dirigible Shenandoah, which was finally moored to her mast here at 1:02 o'clock this morning after successfully completing her jump from Fort Worth, Texas, was ready at daybreak to resume her flight to Camp Lewis, Washington. Rear Admiral William Moffet, Chief of the Bureau of Naval Aeronautics, announced that the Shenandoah would leave here today between 2 o'clock and noon.

"We want to reach San Francisco by sundown today at least," Admiral Moffet said. According to his schedule the Shenandoah should pass over Los Angeles about 2 o'clock and reach its destination at Camp Lewis late tomorrow.

ZR-3 Not Ready To Fly
Today; May Take Off
For America Tomorrow

Friedrichshafen, Germany, Oct. 11. (INS.)—The start of the trans-Atlantic voyage of the ZR-3 was postponed until tomorrow. The postponement was announced a half hour before the big dirigible was due to cast off for America.

Through the night plans had been made for an early morning departure of the last ship to be turned out at the Zeppelin factory. Under the terms of the Versailles treaty the Zeppelin factory must be destroyed. Dr. Hugo Eckener, director of the Zeppelin company and commander of the ZR-3, in its trans-Atlantic trip, had kept constantly in touch with the American situation along the vessel's proposed route, receiving reports by radio from points along the southern coast.

It had been planned to take the dirigible across Basel, Switzerland, to Bordeaux and thence to the Azores.

LAST NIGHT'S FIGHTS

New York: Louis "Kid" Kaplan, Meriden, Conn., knocked out Angel Lopez, Canal Zone, three rounds; Phil Rosenberg, New York, ten rounds; Dan Kramer, Philadelphia, knocked out Harold Farese, five rounds.

At Cleveland: Carl Tremaine, Cleveland bantam, won decision over Charley Goodman, New York, 12 rounds.

Syracuse: Billy Leonard, Syracuse, won judges' decision over Young Tenet, of Albany, six rounds.

CAMP ROBBERS AT WORK

Camp robbers descended on Camp Wilder, near Kennedy Park game reserve on Thursday and looted the camp of a dozen or more blankets and other valuables. The Clearfield County Hunter's Protective Association, of which the Wilder Club is a member, will give $100 reward for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the robbers, or the robbery of any other camp in the Association.

HEALTH REPORT IS FINE

Secretary Gaulin of the Board of Health reports a clean bill of health the past week for Clearfield again. Not a case of communicable disease developed during the week. The only case under quarantine is one of mumps and that is due for release in a day or two.

UNFILLED STEEL TONNAGE
INCREASES

New York, Oct. 10. (INS.)—Unfilled tonnage of the United States Steel Corporation on September 30 increased 185,203 tons as compared with August 31. Unfilled orders on September 30 amounted to 3,473,780 tons against 3,289,577 on August 31, a total of 1,877,072 on July 31, and 5,035,750 on September 30, 1923.

SHADEL IS GUILTY IN SECOND DEGREE; TO
BE SENTENCED TODAY

Middleburg, Pa., Oct. 11. (INS.)—Ralph Shadel, 18, confessed slayer of Harvey Willow, his employer, in a mountain thicket last December, was sentenced to not more than 20 nor less than 10 years in the Eastern Penitentiary today by Judge Miles E. Potter.

Shadel, his boyish face beaming with the joy of a new born life, stood quiet and calm as the sentence was pronounced. Since a second degree verdict was returned yesterday afternoon, he has entirely changed from the dazed, callow youth that has lived in the shadows of death since his confession last August.

Today he expressed his joy that his life had been spared, a gift on his 18th birthday. His one wish, he declared, was for another chance. And for the first time in months he has smiled.

Throughout the trial, Shadel has been pictured as a boy fully developed physically, but mentally deficient. He has been a victim of heredity and poverty, his counsel claimed, and was irresponsible; not insane, but a virtual slave to the more mature powers of Mrs. Annie Willow.

"You are a very lucky boy," Judge Potter declared in passing sentence. "Such crime is first degree murder." The maximum sentence was imposed.

The little court room was crowded to the doors as Shadel was led in. He looked at his parents as he sat down, awaiting the call to appear for sentence.

After being sentenced Shadel turned and embraced his parents. He was taken back to his cell, where he will likely be held until after Mrs. Annie Willow has been tried. It is possible that he will be called as a witness in the woman's case.

Although suffering a collapse yesterday, Mrs. Willow was somewhat better today. It was rumored that she would not be able to go on trial Monday because of her condition, but this report was given little credence by court attaches.

Middleburg, Pa., Oct. 11. (INS.)—The first chapter in the alleged "love pact" slaying of Harvey Willow by Ralph Shadel, his 18 year old farm hand and Mrs. Annie Willow, will be written today when Judge Potter sentenced the youth, who was found guilty of second degree murder.

Shadel's fate was sealed by a jury late yesterday, after only two hours deliberation. By one of those grim tragedies of life, Ralph was convicted on his eighteenth birthday.

To the youth it was a birthday gift. A gift of life. The state had demanded death in the electric chair. When the verdict was read, Ralph just grinned. In the tearful embrace of his mother and father he began to understand. He chuckled then, laughed as he shook hands with those near.

Judge Potter's charge to the jury warned them not to return a first degree verdict if they thought Ralph irresponsible—the whole case of the defense. He cautioned them, however, to disregard pity but to remember "the pauper is to have the same justice as the millionaire."

Refuting the prosecution's contention that Shadel "knew he had done wrong," and was entirely responsible, A. Francis Gilbert, chief counsel for the defense, based his final address to the jury on the causes leading to loss of self-control.

"Many a man has been saved the penalty of death because they committed crimes when drunk with liquor," he declared.

"Then, how about this boy?" he asked, "who was intoxicated by a greater stimulant, a bad woman?" Mrs. Annie Willow, wife of the slain man, and named by Shadel as the instigator of the murder will be placed on trial Monday morning.

PHILIPSBURG STORE ROBBED

Thieves broke a display window in the J. F. Kephart Hardware Store on Front street in Philipsburg late last night and stole seven guns and a quantity of ammunition.

Three shot guns and four rifles were among the loot secured. Mr. Kephart places his loss at $300.

SHERIFF ARRESTS HIS
OWN SON ON CHARGE
OF SLAYING HIS WIFE

Carlinville, Ills., Oct. 10. (INS.)—Arrested by his own father, Lester Kahl, 24 year old son of Deputy Sheriff E. A. Kahl, of Shipman, 16 miles south of here, today was being held in jail with a net of gruesome evidence tightly drawn about him as the slayer of his pretty thirteen day bride, Margaret, 21.

While Sheriff John H. Russell was preparing for an emergency in case the high feeling might lead to an attempt to lynch young Kahl, a coroner's jury was being sworn in to hold an inquest over the bullet riddled body of the bride.

The body was found last night in a shallow grave near Shipman, where Kahl led the Sheriff after he had confessed he shot his young bride. It had been buried two weeks.

"We had quarrelled over a girl I had kept company with," Young Kahl explained to the men who dug at the spot he had indicated. "Also she wanted new clothes which I felt I could not afford. I decided to shoot her."

"That same evening I asked her to help me shoot some doves. I told her to go around a hedge and scare the birds towards me. I planned however to plug her when she came around the hedge."

"The first shot bowled her over and she exclaimed 'You have done a good job of it.' I reloaded and shot her again. Then I hauled the body in a wagon to a spot a half mile away and dug a grave a couple of feet deep and covering the body with an army blanket, I buried her there."

The young girl's puzzling disappearance led to Kahl's arrest by his own father. She had been missing since Sept. 27. The Kahls were married Sept. 2nd.

Unlawful Action Taken
To Prevent Organization
Of Klan At Glen Falls

Glen Falls, N. Y., Oct. 11. (INS.)—A barrage of stones, clubs and bottles of ammonia thrown by a mob of nearly 2,000 persons greeted the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan last night when they attempted to organize in this city.

The crowd, composed largely of youths, stormed the building in which the meeting was held and smashed in the windows. Several of those who attended were assaulted. They said today but for the timely interference of the police they might have been seriously injured.

WHITE—SWANSON

Miss Esther Elizabeth Swanson, daughter of Mrs. Eva Swanson, of South Renovo, was married Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 8, in St. John's Lutheran Church to Sherman William White of Renovo. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. O. Bostrom, Pastor, in the presence of immediate relatives.

The bride was most becomingly gowned in a cocoa brown velveteen suit with hat to match and wore a corsage bouquet of bridal roses. Following the ceremony a luncheon was served at the bride's home, at the conclusion of which the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip which will take them to Erie, Philadelphia and New York. On their return they will take up house keeping in the home they have awaiting them in South Renovo.

The bride is well and most favorably known in Clearfield, she having been one of the popular and efficient teachers in the Market Street school the past two years, and her local friends join in sincerest congratulations.

ROBERT KENNEDY WINS
GOLF PRIZE

Robert H. Kennedy, one of the youngest players on the Mohawk Golf club course of Tiffin, Ohio, is the winner of the McPherson cup as the result of the 36-hole finals with S. B. Sneath the feature of the week-end play at the club. Although off form, Sneath forced Kennedy to play par golf. Kennedy won 12 and 11.

New Castle Grid Fans
Meet With Mishaps On
State Road Near Here

A New Castle football team is playing at Harrisburg today and there was a steady stream of automobiles through Clearfield last night between 7 o'clock and midnight bearing New Castle fans to the state capital to cheer their home town boys on to victory or sympathize with them in defeat.

One car load consisting of Ken Allen, Ed Graham, Sara J. Ames, Mrs. G. H. Gilmore, Lou P. Bishop and Agnes Stinson were forced to spend the night in Clearfield by reason of a couple of accidents which befell them on the Clearfield-Curwensville road about one mile above town. Up near Hyde a car whizzed past so close that the rear fender on their car was caught and yanked off by the passing car.

The driver ran to the side of the road and stopped to take account of the damage done his machine. He failed to clear the concrete with his rear wheel and along came another car and whanging into the disabled machine completed what the other fellow started.

The car was pretty badly damaged, while Allen, who was caught in the smashup, suffered a badly bruised knee and hip. The others escaped injury. The driver of the first car to sideswipe the New Castle machine was a real road hog and never stopped to see what damage he had done. The second driver stopped and loading the scared and weary football fans into his car brought them to the Hotel Jordan, where they spent the night and then decided to continue the trip this morning and see that football game or die in the attempt.

PENNSY-GRAMS

Pittsburgh.—Two women are at their homes here today suffering from injuries received last night when an upbound incline car of the Duquesne Plane Company operating below the Point bridge left the rails a few feet from the upper landing. The car was suspended 600 feet in midair. Mrs. M. Brennan, 50, is suffering from a lacerated right foot and injured spine and Mrs. F. Slattery, 45, was bruised about the head.

Oil City, Pa., Oct. 11. (INS.)—Vandalism to tombstones at the St. Joseph Catholic cemetery here became known today. Three tombstones were defaced by carving K. K. K. on the backs of all of them. In addition one of the tombstones had a hooded design carved on it.

Franklin.—Police are still searching today for the person or persons who raided the Catholic cemetery here, wrecking about ten tombstones, tearing up a water main and pulling up flowers.

Creighton.—Local police and posse composed of citizens from New Kensington, Tarentum and East Deer townships are searching the woods in this vicinity today for the negro who is alleged to have stabbed Mrs. Agnes Vaszki, 28, several times in her home near here when she resisted the man's attack. Mrs. Vaszki was confined to her bed with her 6 weeks old daughter when the negro entered. After stabbing the woman the negro fled.

Carnegie.—George Rome, 65, a resident of this city for more than 40 years and a prominent business man of Chartiers Valley is dead here today, after a short illness. He was born in Portland, Me.

Philadelphia.—The first shot fired by Wm. Eckstein, 15, from his new revolver last night proved disastrous when it struck and perhaps fatally wounded Harry Smith, 11, one of his boy companions. Eckstein described the shooting as accidental. He is held by police pending the outcome of the other boy's injuries.

Philadelphia.—After a delay of 19 years, the estate of Israel Morris, former Iron merchant, valued in excess of $2,000,000 has just been adjudicated here. The three sons of Mr. Morris, originally made the three executors under his will, are all dead and the final account was filed by his grandsons. The delay was denounced by the court.

Philadelphia.—The alleged loss of approximately $180,000 by prominent Philadelphia by investing in worthless stocks was revealed here yesterday when C. J. Langley was held in $7,500 bail. Langley and Luther D. Lovelock, Chief engineer at the Hog Island shipyards during the war, are charged with securing stock in the Lehigh corporation and selling it at many times its value by misrepresentation.

BIG COLUMBUS DAY
CELEBRATION WILL BE GORGEOUS EVENT

The Columbus Day celebration in Clearfield on Monday promises to bring many thousands of visitors to our town. The committees of the local Sons of Italy lodge have every arrangement made for the big time and are now anxiously awaiting the arrival day and hoping for good weather.

The celebration will be held at the Driving Park and an interesting program of exercises and amusements has been provided for.

Addresses will be made by Hon. A. T. Chase, Hon. Singleton Bell, Walter Welch, Esq., Editor John F. Short and a number of representatives of the order Sons of Italy. The aim and purpose of the Sons of Italy is the Americanization of people of Italian birth who have come to this country to make their home. The record of the organization in this regard is one to be proud of. Its membership is doing a great work in educating and fitting its members for better citizenship as all who are familiar with this work in the different communities where branches of this order are located testify.

The program at the Park Monday will start following the big street parade and in addition to the speech-making will consist of band concerts and hand contest, football game and other sports, while refreshments may be had upon the grounds. In the evening, what the committee in charge says will be the greatest fireworks exhibition ever shown here, will be given as a finale to the band concert and the day's activities. This fireworks program, which is made up of 42 set pieces and more than 500 bombs, will start at 7 o'clock.

The admission to the Park will be 50 cents during the afternoon and 25 cents from 5 to 7 p. m. School children will be admitted free from 5 to 7 to see the fireworks.

Columbus Day is a holiday in Pennsylvania and the Sons of Italy have properly decorated the main streets of our town and ask that all good citizens put up their American flags Monday in honor of Christopher Columbus and his discovery of this great continent of ours.

4 Year Old Finds Pistol,
Fatally Wounds Brother,
2, In Mother's Absence

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 10. (INS.)—While his mother was at the home of a neighbor, four year old Paul Ryan last night found a pistol in a bureau drawer at their home in Hollywood Terrace, near here. The pistol went off while he played with it and fatally wounded his two year old brother, Earl, lying in bed in the room. He died later at the Wilmington Hospital.

DRAWING DECEMBER JURY

Jury Commissioners Harry Conner of Burnside and A. Y. Straw, of Pike township, assisted by Sheriff T. J. Lowell, are engaged in drawing the jury for December term of court. Also an adjourned week of September term, which starts Monday, November 17th.

The regular December term will last three weeks. The Grand Jury will meet Monday, December 1st, while criminal court starts December 15th. Civil court also starts December 1st.

SHOWER FOR NEWLYWEDS

Bess and Althea Hunter gave a shower to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd S. Owens at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Mac Roth of Irvin Hill. The bride received many useful gifts. After serving delicious refreshments the thirty-five guests departed for their homes wishing the bride and groom long year of happiness.

MRS OTIS RODGERS VERY ILL

Mrs. Otis Rodgers of Ogden avenue is a patient at the Clearfield Hospital and is reported to be quite seriously ill.

Hurry To Celebrate
Hallowe'en Will Get
Youths Into Trouble

General complaint from every section of the town regarding alleged Hallowe'en tactics of antics of the boys and girls of the town was caused Burgess Kittelberger to appear in special police officers for each ward of the town for the purpose of breaking up this silly practise of starting in two or three weeks before the time and annoying the people by soaping windows, windshields and headlights of automobiles, pulling doorbells and throwing dirt and rubbish against windows and on front porches.

These practises are being indulged in by youngsters all over the town and it must stop at once or the parents of these same youngsters will be called upon to pay fines for the perpetrators of these annoyances. There is no excuse for this malicious mischief and it is up to the parents to see that a stop is put to it.

Automobile drivers, the headlights and windshields of whose machines have been soaped several different times the past week, have appealed to the State Highway Department about it and the motor patrol has been directed to seek out the perpetrators of these acts regardless of their ages or intentions and bring prosecution against them in each case, as this is an especially dangerous practise.

Burgess Kittelberger, who was a boy once himself, says the bars will be let down to all reasonable "horse play" or hallowe'en on the last two nights of October, two regular and appointed time for such alleged fun on the part of the youngsters, but all work of this nature up to that time will get the guilty boy or girl in trouble and their parents will be asked to settle for their shortcomings.

Parents should take this warning in the spirit that animates the Burgess and instruct their sons, and daughters too, to cease their annoyances until the proper season arrives.

GIANTS LOOM BIG
AS SPORTSMEN IN
DEFEAT IN SERIES

By DAVIS J. WALSH
(I. N. S. Sports Editor.)

New York, Oct. 11.—Something after the manner of Napoleon's historic retreat from Moscow, the chastened New York Giants arrived in town this morning on an overnight train from Washington, secretly convinced that the better team lost, but publicly giving due credit to the Senators for their victory in the world's series.

Strange to say, they were almost debonair in defeat. The so-called little Napoleon, John J. McGraw, hardly presented the aspect of the dejected, slumped-over figure that a great artist painted of that earlier retreat. He was not jubilant; neither was he forlorn.

Somehow the Giants had arrived at the conclusion that fate as much as the Senators, had beaten them and at the same time the individual players were quick to shoulder what blame was theirs.

"I let Harris' hit in the eighth play me," said young Fred Lindstrom.

"I grooved one for Harris in the third," declared Barnes.

"I should have been able to get that crack out from under my feet," quoth Gowdy.

And so it went. There was little or no blame to be taken and the players took it.

Although careful to avoid committing themselves to the effect, the Giants to a man still believed they were the best ball club.

A tip-off on their attitude was the fact that few of them carried hand baggage, this being not a case of neglect, but of supreme self-confidence. When the club departed for Washington to play the sixth game, George Kelly didn't even carry a tooth brush.

He expected to be on his way to New York the night of the sixth game with the series ended and the Giants the winner.

Perhaps the man who should have taken defeat the hardest seemed to be the most buoyant. A desperate opponent, John McGraw—also proved himself a cheerful loser.

He hastened to make graceful admission of the fact that the Senators (Continued On Page Two.)

STATE S. S. WORKERS
END SUCCESSFUL
ANNUAL MEETING

Washington, Pa., Oct. 10. (INS.)—With most of its routine business cleared up the State Sabbath School annual convention prepared to close today after one of the most successful and enthusiastic meetings in its history. The following officers were elected to serve for the coming year for the teacher's training alumni following a banquet last night: President, Dr. M. Hadwin Fischer; Vice President, John C. Cole, Coatsville; Secretary, George W. Penniman, Wilkinsburg; Treasurer, W. H. Stone, Waverly.

The State Federation of organized adult bible classes re-elected the following officers: President John W. Vickerman, Bellevue; Vice Presidents, H. D. English, Pittsburgh; C. F. Spesschaede, Bedford; Kennedy, Cumming, Meadville; R. E. Engle, Pittsburgh; Connessman, M. C. Kelly, Edgewood; Samuel L. Grotz, Yellert, York; Judge Thomas F. Bailey, Huntinton; Mrs. John Y. Day, Harrisburg; Mrs. W. B. Easton, Stroudsburg; Mrs. Alice Hoke, Philadelphia. Secretary George W. Penniman, Wilkinsburg; Treasurer W. H. Stone, Waverly.

The Treasurer's report for the year made public last night showed $59,000 was used out of $65,000 subscribed to the organization last year. The report of the budget committee called for the expenditure of approximately $72,400 for this year. Almost $50,000 was raised for this purpose yesterday.

At the open meeting of the convention delegates today resolutions were adopted condemning Sunday baseball, and other Sunday sports.

Special mention was made again of the Sunday World's Series baseball games. Resolutions were also adopted condemning immoral shows at County Fairs and recommending drastic action be used to stop such shows. Officers who uphold the law were praised and summary action against officers guilty of malfeasance of duty was urged.

After a spirited contest, Erie, Pa. was selected as the meeting place of next year's convention, but the efforts of Reading delegates to obtain the convention led to a recommendation favoring that city for the 1925 convention.

Percy L. Craig of New Castle, was re-elected President of the Association for the sixth consecutive year and all other important officers were also re-elected.

FULL ROUND OF ACTIVITY
AT THE "Y" THESE DAYS

The Physical Department activities of the Y. M. C. A. are getting well under way since their opening last week. The boys and girls especially were anxious for the gym to open and their classes have increased each period. A good number attended the ladies' class last Friday evening, 7:30 and the senior class on Monday and Thursday got a good start. An effort will be made to get the business men lined up on Monday at 10 o'clock and it will not be long until things are in full swing. Physical examinations were started this week and as soon as the majority have been given, a physical development contest will start. Another examination will be given at the close of the indoor season and the ones making the most improvement will be awarded prizes. Next week the classes will be divided into teams with their captain and lieutenant and compete in various athletics, swimming, gymnastics and games for points. The team securing the most points during the next couple months will be awarded individual contests will also be planned and started soon.

A good season is anticipated from present indications the athletic will no doubt eclipse the 1923 persons which attended during the last ten months. Basketball, volleyball, indoor baseball, swimming, around athletics, gymnastics, calisthenics, etc., should draw a crowd any time. The classes can also stand additions, the more the better.

The department has been thoroughly renovated, a few small improvements made and the apparatus in first class condition.

Giants' Loom Big

deserved their victory, discounted the breaks that decided the final game and predicted a brilliant career for Stanley Harris, the 27-year-old manager.

"I don't feel badly about it," said McGraw. "Defeat is just something that must be taken in its stride. It's part of life. You can't win all the time and now that it is all over, it doesn't mean so much to me as you might imagine. I have had plenty of winners in my time."

"The breaks helped to stop us but breaks are part of every ball game and we would have had to get them to win."

"I think Harris deserves a lot of credit for the way he handled his team. He is still young and should have lots of winners before he is thru with baseball. I hope he has as many as I have had."

"I was glad that it was Johnson who beat us as long as some one had to. I would rather have him do it than anyone I know."

In the Courts

Judge Chase, in an order made this morning, dismissed the application of certain Ball township citizens for the removal of O. D. Gould from the office of Supervisor of said township.

An order was made directing that Leslie Bloom, young son of Frank Bloom of Home Camp, be taken to the Allegheny General hospital for treatment in the orthopedic department of that institution. The county will pay the costs of such treatment, up to $500. The boy is a cripple and recent activity by the Cripple Child Relief Committee of the DuBois Rotary Club, located here and a physician who examined him, decided the boy could be cured or helped a lot and the matter was then presented to the Court under the terms of an Act of Assembly governing such cases or conditions. S. S. Provin of DuBois, was empowered to get the boy and take him to Pittsburgh.

Kramer & Kramer entered suit in the Clearfield county courts today on behalf of James Rider, of Curwensville and against Kelly D. Bloom, of Curwensville. In this suit Mr. Rider endeavors to recover $1161.60 from Mr. Bloom for labor and services rendered during the past year as manager and operator of Bloom's ice plant in Curwensville.

M. J. McMahon, of Brookville, Pa. by his attorneys Arnold & Platt, asked the Court on Friday for a mandamus compelling the Commissioners of Clearfield county to pay him $2,241.57 alleged to be due on his contract for building a portion of State road in Sandy township.

The statement alleges that not only is the money due the contractor but that the bill has the approval of the County Controller A. G. Woodward and should be paid and claims the payment is withheld by the Commissioners at the request of "certain strangers or alleged creditors of McMahon."

In the answer to the request for a mandamus filed by County Solicitor Liveright the Commissioners deny that the bill has the approval of the County Controller Woodward and appends copy of a letter from A. C. Guth, of Brookville who claims an interest in the amount alleged to be due as a sort of "silent partner" of McMahon, and who has filed a bill in equity against McMahon attaching the money, a copy of which has been served upon the Commissioners, who will make no payment pending the adjudication of this suit.

Why Wood Fire Crackles

In wood there are a great many small holes or cells. Some of these have a little moisture in them. When the wood gets hot this moisture turns to steam and bursts the cells. This makes a noise like a small explosion, and a great many such noises together make the crackle of the fire.

Noises Affect Hearing

Most middle-aged residents of large cities are slightly deaf, due, it is said, to the continuous roar of traffic.

King of Mountains

Mount Everest is nearly as high as the combined heights of Mount Cook (the highest mountain in New Zealand), Fuji-Yama (the highest in Japan), and Ben Nevis (the highest in the British Isles).

Fish Frozen in Ice

It is said that there are authentic cases of fishes and frogs which have survived after having been incased in solid ice. This is because cold-blooded creatures such as fish and frogs have a very low standard of heat. Their body temperature is only slightly above that of the surrounding atmosphere. However, fishes and frogs frozen in ice would not usually survive. —Pittsburgh Magazine.

Mental Riches and Poverty

To be happy, the temperament must be cheerful and gay, not gloomy and melancholy. A propensity to hope and joy is real riches; only to fear and sorrow, is real poverty. —Hume.

Conquered by Jelly Fish

Myriads of jelly fish, stirred from depth of a heavy sea, clung to and stung a German swimmer recently, so severely that he abandoned the contest.

Says "It's Surprising!"

After a demonstration in the new Willys-Knight Sedan equipped with the Lanchester Balancer, the famous aeroplane builder said—"It is surprising. I drove the car at all speeds up to 50 miles an hour and found absolutely no engine vibration."

Vibrationless Motoring

Automobile engineers have been striving for many years to lay the ghost of vibration—but it has remained for the Willys-Knight to bring to the United States the secret of vibrationless engine-running.

The Lanchester Balancer—a great discovery by a great genius—the invention of Dr. F. W. Lanchester, F.R.S., of Great Britain, builder of one of the world's most expensive motor cars.

With this new ingenuity of engineering, Willys-Knight achieves positive engine smoothness at all speeds. A smoothness almost incredible to the thousands and thousands of automobile owners who have always thought vibration in a car to be a necessary evil.

This achievement is all the more notable for being sponsored by a car with so many other great achievements to its credit. Willys-Knight long since ended the days of valve-grinding and carbon-cleaning—and the Willys-Knight sleeve-valve engine is known around the world as the engine that improves with use.

Leading engineering authorities, car owners, the public generally, are impressed by Willys-Knight's vibrationless performance. A ride is a new thrill—a new experience—a new conception of motoring pleasure. Take a ride today!

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

Anybody who can explain how Mr. Coolidge could fail to have a commanding lead in the Literary Digest's poll is entitled to put in a claim as master of the world's highest mathematics.

According to the Literary Digest's own figures, defining party members as they voted in the last election, the Digest has sent its ballots to 402,186 Republicans and 141,868 Democrats. The Digest has thus given 28 Republicans a chance to vote for every ten Democrats who have one of its post card ballots.

But in the eighteen states from which results have been reported, the ratio of Republicans to Democrats, even in the landslide year of 1920, was only 20.6 to 10. The difference between 28 to 10 and 20.6 to 10 is difference enough to weigh the election hopelessly against a Democratic candidate. Of course, the Digest doesn't give its voting list. But the electorate it polls is no more a true sample even of the 1920 electorate than those proportions indicate.

Carbon monoxide poisoning is claimed yearly in all modern countries more deaths (including accidental and suicidal gas asphyxiations) than from any other cause, according to Dr. Charles Norris, chief medical examiner of New York City, in an address before the National Association of Fire and Police surgeons. Dr. Norris

"Carbon monoxide poisoning is a disease of industrial life, as in coal mines and among workers about gas machines. It is the most widespread toxic agent of modern civilization because of its application in industry, in production of light and warmth in houses and the health hazard in street by automobile and other gasoline engines. Carbon monoxide claims more victims as regards health and life than any other poison.

"In closed spaces, as garages, it is certain many fatal accidents occur yearly that are not recorded in mortality statistics. A recent investigation showed that a small car produces one and larger cars or trucks two, cubic feet of carbon monoxide per minute, and when an engine is run idle with doors closed the atmosphere of a space large enough to hold a car is contaminated to a dangerous extent."

Recent experiments by a British zoologist have led to the discovery that male butterflies like to get drunk while the females shun liquor, says Popular Science Monthly. The butterflies were placed in a screened garden with bowls of whiskey and water, the males invariably took to the liquor.

Railroad profits totaled ten billions of dollars in the last 12 years and are now running at approximately a billion a year, E. H. Fitzgerald, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, Freight Handlers and Station Employees, declared in opening the wage hearing involving the Brotherhood's request for a revocation of 1920 wage rates before the United States Railroad Labor Board today.

Fitzgerald cited the increasing prosperity of the industry as ground for a reconsideration of the present wage. The rate established by the Board in 1920 were cut by it during the depression, extending through 1921 and 1922, when he said, the Board stated it would be able to "give increased consideration to the scientific adjustment of a living and saving wage" when the condition of the carriers was improved.

He quoted statistics of the National Industrial conference board and government figures in an effort to show that wages of other wage earners were close to or above the 1920 level and contend that the employees that he represented should be accorded the same measure of justice. Their earnings, he said, fell more than ten per cent short of enabling them to obtain as good a living for their families as the wages of 1895 provided."

THE LOVE-BET

A sure box-office winner was secured when Fredrick V. Bowers and his gang in the chummy musical comedy "The Love Bet" was booked. No attraction of a similar nature has been met with such favor, the idea is an entirely new one. The music is delightful and the costumes and scenery, exquisite. The attraction will be at the Driggs Theatre on Tuesday, October 14th.

About thirty of the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. John Banks dropped in on them at their home on Clearfield street last evening and helped Mr. and Mrs. Banks celebrate their 17th wedding anniversary.

Miss Esther Miles, one of the primary teachers at Market street school, is quite seriously ill at the Clearfield hospital and will likely have to undergo a surgical operation.

Awnings Should Be Taken Down Now

Now is the time when your awnings get harder wear from the elements in a few weeks than they did from all the summer storms. It's the damp, frosty weather that ruins the coverings. Have us take yours down now before they are really injured.

You Can Have Your Store Represented On Every Clearfield County Farm

Every farm in this county can be told of the real service your store and, what's very important, yourself and your own personality can be taken to every farm.

Right now the farmer's a mighty busy man. He's trying to beat the frosts. He's up to his neck, figuratively speaking, in work. But — his family are all wide-awake to the call of good advertising. They will respond.

OCTOBER LIVE STOCK ISSUE COMES OUT NEXT TUESDAY

This Live Stock Issue has become a fixture on many farms. It is looked for just as closely as many of the other periodicals that are published. And for this reason your store story, your service story, YOUR ADVERTISEMENT, will get real attention from every member of the family.

Just now the women folks on the farms are interested in their winter wearables. Same is true of the men. The whole family is interested in radio — an idea for the merchants selling radio apparatus. There isn't a store or a service in this city but what will benefit greatly by using liberal space in the October Live Stock Issue.

Get us your copy as early as you can. The earlier we get your copy, the better service we can give you. The copy MUST all be in the office, however, not later than five o'clock Monday afternoon.

PEOPLE WHO MOVE

Postoffices are always busy changing addresses on the mail of people who have moved somewhere else. It is one of the worst postal problems. Business firms are everlastingly obliged to revise their mailing lists. It was deduced from postal figures furnished in a typical industrial city the other day that one family out of every 10 moved at least once every six months. That means 20 per cent of the people moving once a year, or the average family moving once every five years.

Such mobility of population would be incredible in any Old World city, where often the same family occupies a house for several generations. It is so exceptional in an American city for an old person to die in the home he was born in that the newspapers ment on that fact as remarkable.

All these movements cost an enormous lot of money to the movers and make an enormous lot of trouble for them and other people. Still, it would be worse if they never moved.

Moving is evidence of life, activity, progress, improvement. People usually move into a better house, or one they think is better. And often a change without obvious improvement is made in itself, because it stirs people up.

FEEDING BOYS AND GIRLS

Parents who think they would rather have boys than girls can console themselves with the knowledge that it costs more to feed boys. That has always been assumed, from casual observation, but now a German scientist has proved it.

Up to the age of 13 years there is little difference between the sexes in appetite, as in most other respects. From 10 to 13 years, boys and girls alike eat 60 per cent as much as adults. From 13 to 16 they eat 80 per cent as much as grown-ups, while girls eat only 70 per cent as much. After that, the boys eat as much as grown men; while the girls, from 13 on, through their teens and in mature womanhood, eat only 80 per cent as much. So, if it costs $200 a year to feed the adolescent boy, it costs only $160 to feed the girl.

There may be no question about these figures as to the comparative appetites of the two sexes. But somehow the comparison with adult appetites, on the part of boys and girls both, seems inadequate. It may be true enough in Germany, where grown-ups are notorious eaters. But in America, what father will not maintain that every boy over the age of 12 eats more than he does?

ANTI-LYNCHING SENTIMENT

Only 30 years ago in this country public opinion apparently tolerated lynchings, and 200 a year were not uncommon. Slowly the number declined, until last year there were only 23. In the first six months of 1924 only five lynchings were reported.

The gradual decline of this evil is very important. Partly it is attributed to better inter-racial feeling. The work of churches and inter-racial commissions in sections where lynchings have been common has helped tremendously to create a more harmony and also greater respect for law.

The most hopeful element in the case, however, is that public sentiment is increasingly opposed to lynching and that public sentiment, rather than anti-lynching laws, is accomplishing the desired end. When the public recognizes an evil square and takes a positive stand against it, that evil is bound to fall. And in the same way, if only it could be generally realized, when public sentiment recognizes a good cause and takes a definite stand for it, that cause is bound to succeed.

Progress Editorials For Women

JAZZ ENGLISH

By FLORENCE DAVIES

"Toots, squawks and nasal tones"—that is what a New York professor says the American of today gives out in his hurry to get somewhere. The good old art of conversation? Every man is dying out, according to this pleader for real language.

Passing lightly over the extraordinary twist given by the cockney to his mother tongue, we agree that "phonograph English" is the professor's young Americanism of today, a little if any better. There was a library page once who warned us of "a nyle in that chyre" when we were about to sit down and tear a flimsy gown. The warning had to be translated in those days the London cockney was less well known in every-day fiction of newspapers—but the accent lingered in mind long after the chair had been freed of the tearing nail.

However, the point is that "Whad-jogondo?" and the "Gee, Gosh and Golly" school of speech, are on a low level as an expression of thought.

Africa's Termites

Before the Biological society, in London, a naturalist described his studies of the African termites, or white ants. Certain individuals in every nest have no other apparent function except that of builders or soldiers. Some have a long body, from which they erect an arched, coracoid shield; others inspire terror by making a loud clicking noise with their mandibles; but they neither shoot nor bite. One singular observation of the naturalist was that the soldier ants, which are out to defend an attacked nest, do not return to the nest, but wander about, and soon perish from exposure to the outside air.

Chemicals Carried to Sea

Thirty-two of the ninety two elements known to exist have been found in sea water. Scientists believe that most of the others are there, and await merely the development of new methods of chemical analysis to bring them to light. These elements have been washed into the sea from the rocks of the land. Every year 500,000,000 tons of salts are washed into the sea by the American rivers.

Stray Bit of Wisdom

One man pins me to the wall, while with another I walk among the stars.—Emerson.

Slightly in Error

Jud Tunkine says he sees several men fooling themselves the same as he did when he thought for a minute he was at the head of the class only the teacher was coming from the other side.

The professor harks back to Oxford English and says "In 200 more years people won't recognize the words on the phonograph records of our time." We should like to think that today's jargon would be unrecognizable because the American of the year 2124 A. D. had progressed beyond such crudities.

We have a "Better Speech Week", and it serves to point the way to careful, musical, as well as grammatical expression, through our native tongue. But one week out of 52 will never round our bad ways. Why not a daily watch over that unruly member, the tongue? We have been told that unkind, vulgar, profane, cruel and bitter words, should be forbidden to issue from the gates of speech. Now let us watch with equal vigilance for the uncouth, the "jazzy"—Puggoes, that tumble over each other on the vivid cherry-red lips of today.

The old fairy tales of the good little maiden from whose lips dropped pearls and diamonds when she spoke, and her ugly rival whose disposition was so bad that only tords and scorpions came from her mouth, haven't outlived their application yet.

A Concealed Statue

There is in the Crystal Palace in London, an equestrian statue 30 feet high. In 1850 it was decided to move it to heavy to move, and the present grand orchestra was built up around it. Of the millions that frequent the palace, few have any suspicion of the statue's existence.—Scientific American.

Feet of Comfort

A lady writes from Roscombe, Eng. "Bird Notes and News": "I wish you could have seen a chaffinch's nest that one of the catlets showed me. It was built near the railway station, and a cat had pulled it down. We thought at first it had the usual lichen and moss on the outside, but closer examination showed the lichen to be white soufflé, with jagged edges, and the moss was the green bast used to the sp flowers, all woven in and wrinkled up to resemble moss. There had evidently been a wedding party at the station."

The women who are worth anything at all in this world are the ones who are the most troublesome to manage.—From "Race," by William McFee.

Region of High Tides

The tides in the British channel are among the heaviest known. There the spring tides rise to a height of nearly 50 feet.

Makes Strong Appeal

There is something in the very name of fortune which speaks to the almost indelible love of heroism in men's hearts.—Bishop Francis Paget.

French Women Use Plows

Because of the many small farms in France, handplows that may be operated by women as well as men are sold there.

In Life's Odd Moments

It is what we saw in the minutes and spare portions of a few years that grows up to crowns and scepters.—Jeremy Taylor.

Use for Old Films

Old cinematograph films, after being holed down and having a certain proportion of silver removed, are used for making patent leather.

Latin Derivative

Corporal is derived from the same Latin word as captain, but with an admixture of the meaning and spelling of the English word corps. Corporalis in medieval Latin meant a chief or commander; hence the French corporal.

WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT WORK

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Stopped Her Suffering and Restored Her Health

Momence, Illinois.—"I surely can recommend your medicine to other women who have female weakness, as it has helped me very much in every way possible. I was working in a dining room in town, and sometimes I could not do my work; had pains in the lower part of my body and had to stay in bed. One of my neighbors told me what good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for her, and it has surely done wonders for me. I hope all women who suffer will take my advice as the Vegetable Compound has done so much to bring back my vigor and strength."—Mrs. ALBERT B. DESCHAUD, Momence, Illinois.

Over 121,000 women have so far replied to our question: "Have you received benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?" 98 per cent. of these replied "Yes."

That is 98 out of every 100 women who take this medicine for the ailments for which it is recommended are benefited by it. For sale by druggists everywhere.

The Cozy Fires
Add Much To Your Eating Pleasures

It's a delightful thing to sit down here to lunch with cozy fires burning in the grates and the real homelike atmosphere that prevails at every meal. Harlequin patrons are like a large family, too. Everybody's friendly.

Harlequin Tea Room

It Happens Every Day

When you've been looking around for a good used runabout and you find plenty of used ones, but no good ones—at your idea of a fair price—

And some that are offered to you look like a million dollars in the garage and then sound like change for a half-dollar when they get out on the road for a demonstration—

And others seem to have good engines left in them, but the chassis are about as modern and good-looking as a 1910 derby hat—

And just when you're convinced that the used runabout market is thoroughly on the "blink", a friend suggests that you might take a look through the Progress Automotive columns in the classified section—

And you give the idea a try, and right away things begin to look brighter, because you find a number of ads about cars that sound as though they might be what you want—

And you look up the best-described one and find it's just as the ad said, "1923 model, engine like new," and that you can buy it at a real bargain figure—

Oh, Man, That's What You Call Service!

ELECTION PROCLAM

GOD SAVE THE COMMONWEALTH

I, Thomas H. Lowell, High Sheriff of the County of Clearfield, in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby make known and give notice to the Electors of the County of Clearfield, Pennsylvania, on Tuesday the Fourth Day of November, A. D., Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-four, it being the Tuesday following the first Monday of November. The polls to be open from 7 A. M. to 7 P. M., at by ballot for the purpose of electing the following officers:

Thirty-eight Persons for Presidential Electors. One Person for Judge of the Superior Court. One Person for State Treasurer. One Person for Auditor General. One Person for Representative in General Assembly.

To vote a straight party ticket, mark a cross (x) in the square, in the first column, opposite the name of the party of your choice. A cross mark in the square at the head of a group of presidential electors, opposite the name of a party and its presidential candidates, is a vote for all the electors of that party, but for no individual candidate. A cross mark in the square opposite the name of any candidate indicates a vote for that candidate. To vote for a person whose name is not on the ballot, write or paste his or her name in the blank space provided for that purpose. This shall count as a vote either with or without the cross. To vote for an individual candidate of another party after making a mark in the party square, mark a cross (X) opposite his or her name. To vote for an office where more than one candidate is to be elected, the voter, after marking in the party square, may divide his or her vote by marking a cross (X) to the right of each candidate for that office, but candidates not individually marked.

Whale of an Infant
According to Mr. Henry Nesbit, an American authority, the whale is a mammal, and the female bears one whale calf a year. Until the young fish is six months old it is nursed by the mother just as any land baby of the mammal type is. A mother whale has been seen to swim through the water with its young cradled in its flippers.

Holds Tidal Record
In the Bay of Fundy, New Brunswick, the world's highest tides are recorded. Here they often reach as high as 100 feet. On the other hand, the coast of Ireland, at Arklow, there is no perceptible tide at all, and scientists are making constant study to ascertain the reason for this variation.

Market News

New York, Oct. 11.—The highly professional character of the stock market, which has been in evidence since the middle of September, was in no way altered this week.

Movements of stock prices recorded little more than the activities of professional traders. The volume of transactions dwindled to midsummer proportions in some of the sessions, for which a partial explanation was found in the baseball championship games and the Yom Kippur holiday.

Sharp but narrow fluctuations in industrial leaders, continued heaviness in the oil stocks, reactionary movements in motors, equipments, independent steel shares, firmness in copper and sugar stocks and the slight decline in the price of the rails were the main characteristics of a dull and drab stock market, in which public participation was negligible.

PENNSY. AUTHORIZED TO BUY 10,000 BOX CARS

Washington, Oct. 10. (INS.)—The Pennsylvania railroad was authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission today to issue $15,750,000 of equipment trust certificates to be used in the purchase of 10,000 box cars.

THE LOVE BET

On next Tuesday at the Driggs Theatre, an offering not to be missed by those who wish to see a refreshing wholesome musical comedy, briskly diverting, frolicsome and nicely flavored with bright dialogue, is "The Love Bet" with the celebrated musical comedy favorite and song writer, Fredrick V. Bowers and his gang of New York players. This piece has been heralded by all critics as the best of musical comedy on the road this season. The authors of the book are Walter Decker and John P. Mulgrew the lyrics and music by Fredrick V. Bowers and Charles Lewis the dances arranged by Ben Grinnell and it is stated by George E. Stoddard, Fredrick V. Bowers, than whom there is none better known as a singer and writer of popular songs sends his audience away nightly humming or whistling "When the Stars are Shining." The scenic equipment and costumes are very elaborate.

Mrs. A. K. Staver and Miss Bess Logan are spending a few days in Philadelphia.

Misses Nora, Jennie, and Esther Lynn and Gordon Lynn, of Jamestown, N. Y., visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Rowles on Weaver street.

Miss Edith Larson of Pittsburgh and Miss Esther Larson of Oshanter spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. John Rowles.

Miss Dorothy Soulsby of Altoona is visiting her brother Bert Soulsby of Turnpike avenue.

Only Small Birds Sing

Have you thought of it? It is only the small birds that sing? You never heard a note of a song from the eagle in your life, nor from the turkey on the ostrich; but you have heard it from the robin and the lark and the meadow lark and the canary, and how they can sing! So it is from the little folks that we expect the best and sweetest things, the most cheerful and most loving work. So, too, we expect to hear them sing as they go—Grit.

Chiropractic

Female Disorders or abnormal function of the reproductive organs in women cause more distress than is generally credited to them.

Aside from Painful Menstruation, Irregular Periods, Illity, Painful Urination and a few others that are readily cured as female disorders, there are many others that can be attributed to this cause. Among them are Dizziness, Indigestion, Headaches, Enlargement of Thyroid (goiter) Constipation, Uterine pregnancy, etc.

The effect may be treated with more or less success. CHIROPRACTIC removes the cause.

Lesson for October 12

THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT

LESSON TEXT—Matt. 6:16-18.
GOLDEN TEXT—Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.—Mat. 6:10.
PRIMARY TOPIC—The Prayer That Jesus Taught.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Lord's Prayer.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Principles of Christian Living.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Sermon on the Mount in Daily Living.

The so called Sermon on the Mount is not indeed a sermon but a proclamation of the principles and laws which shall obtain in Christ's Kingdom when it shall be established on the earth. In applying the teachings of Matthew 5-7 two errors should be avoided, namely, that of the legalist who makes these principles the hard and fast standard of life for the believer today and also that of the one who denies that the principles or laws of the Kingdom are binding upon believers. Believers have practically the same relation to the Sermon on the Mount that they have to the Ten Commandments. While free from their demands as law, they find delight in retaining them as expressions of God's holy law and thus rejoice in the consciousness that Christ has met all the requirements thereof and that their standing before God is in Him.

I. False Prayer (vv. 5-7).
1. This consists in one praying to be seen and heard of men (v. 5). To go through the act of praying with such an object is to play the hypocrite. Many of the prayers uttered in the public sanctuary are false, for there is more consideration of what the people think than of what God thinks. In prayer the soul is dealing with God. Therefore, engaging in it to attract men's attention is blasphemy. Men who thus pray get a reward, but not from God. They pray to get notice from men and they get such notice.

2. Vain Repetition (vv. 7, 8). This does not mean that we should ask but once for the thing desired, for we have examples of Christ and Paul praying three times for the same thing (Matt. 26:39-41; 1 Cor. 12:7, 8), but rather it means the use of meaningless repetitions, the meaningless reiterations of empty sounds. To pray thus is heathenish. The heathen nations in their worship of idols engage in senseless babble, which we see in the priests of Baal on Mt. Carmel (1 Kings 18:26).

3. True Prayer (v. 6). Since true prayer is a definite transaction of the soul with God, the communion of the human personality with the divine personality, we should have a real desire for fellowship with God and then go and meet Him in secret.

Life for its fullest development needs both solitude and companionship. Solitude alone makes one morose, while constant companionship makes one shallow. God who made us knew what our natures required. Therefore, He commands both public and private prayer (Heb. 10:25; Matt. 6:6).

III. The Model Prayer (vv. 9-13). This was given in response to the disciples' request that the Lord would teach them how to pray. It is not, therefore, the Lord's prayer, but the model prayer for the disciples which involves:

1. A Right Relationship (v. 9). "Our Father." Only those who have become children of God by faith in Jesus Christ (Gal. 3:26) can pray aright. One must be a child of God before he can be in communion with God.

2. A Right Attitude (vv. 9, 10). "Hallowed be Thy name." When one realizes that he has been delivered from the power of darkness and translated into the Kingdom of His dear Son (Col. 1:13) by being made a child of God, he cannot help pouring out his soul in gratitude and praise, intensely longing for the Kingdom, the righteous rule of Christ on the earth.

3. A Right Spirit (vv. 11-13).
(1) That of trust which looks to God for the supply of daily bread. We are dependent upon Him for our daily food.

(2) That of love which results in forgiveness of others. God will not listen to the prayers of one who has an unforgiving spirit.

(3) That of holiness which moves one to pray not to be led into temptation and longs to be delivered from the evil one.

Believe

We are not to keep on looking out for the Kingdom of God, but to believe firmly that it is come, and to live and act in that knowledge and assurance. Then will it indeed be come for us.—Hare.

CHURCHES

THE NEAR EAST PROBLEM

That great interest of humanity, especially of children, has a growing appeal to the American people. This cause assumes such large proportions as to put it beyond a mere voluntary and temporary basis. It has been incorporated by an act of Congress. It now has a legal entity, and fixed regulations. Responsibility is written over the entire movement. The huge needs of that wasted land still cry to heaven.

Next Sunday Clearfield will have a challenge to respond, in its characteristic way, to this clear cause—the helpless children in lands where the older folks can afford no aid, even of shelter.

Lieutenant Frank Connes, of New York, will be at West Side Methodist Church in the morning. He has been three times in Turkey and through the Near East territory; often in Russia; and speaks fluently eight languages. At the present time he is chief interpreter for the New York State Supreme Court. He knows this work at first hand.

Mrs. Laura McDowell, who was in that stricken field, under the most acute conditions of suffering and peril, will be in the morning at the Baptist church.

Mrs. Charles R. Gannaway, wife of a physician in charge of a hospital in the Taurus mountain section, is bringing little Zadi, a "Daughter of Freedom," whose history is as thrilling and tragic as thousands of her race and age, who fell on the highways in the terrible deportations of those cruel days—all too well known. They will speak at Trinity church at School and in the morning worship. They will appear in the evening at the Lutheran church.

Clearfield is very fortunate in getting these representatives of this envying interest, for they are not officials, but workers, whose days were filled with terrible tasks of relief and sympathy. Let the people turn out for these honored workers.

At the Presbyterian Church, on Sunday morning, this pressing philanthropy will be presented by the Rev. W. Gilbert Condit, D.D., of Newark, N. J. Out of the hardest experiences in those desolated regions, he will report conditions as he knows them.

THE PROBLEM OF THE AGES SOLVED WHEN PENNSYLVANIA CRUDE OIL WAS BROUGHT TO THE SURFACE

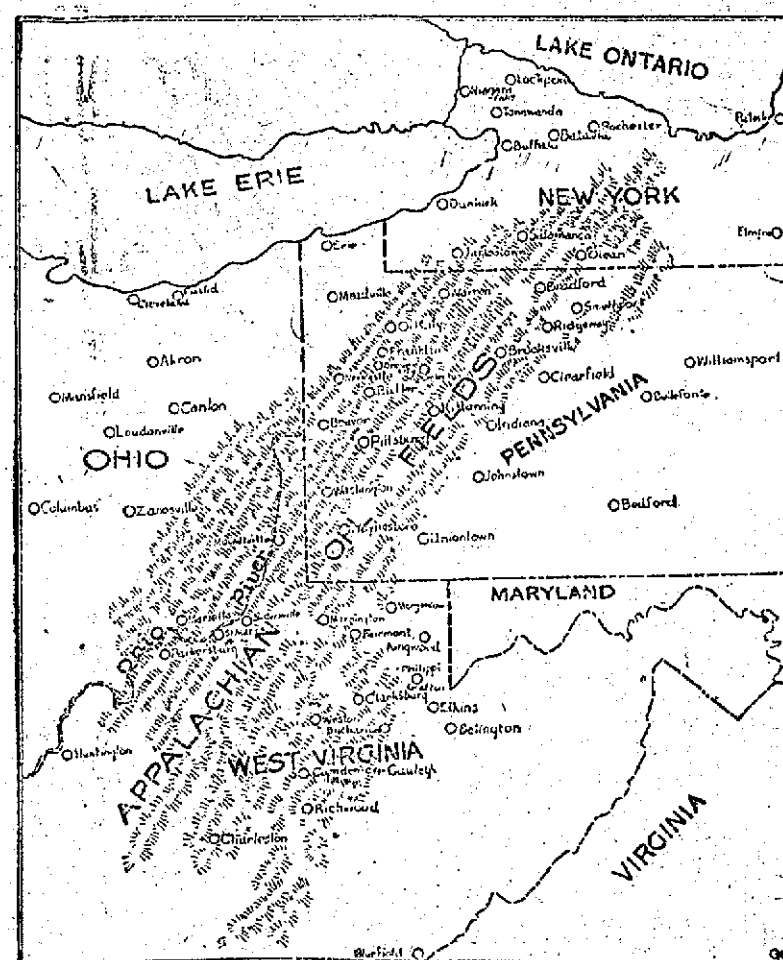

IN 1857 COL. EDWIN L. DRAKE started his quest for oil near Titusville, Pa., with a capital of $1,000. Well drillers and drilling machinery were unheard of at that time and hard to find. This inconvenience was costly in months of delay in erecting pump house and derrick.

The beginning was made in quick sand clay. At first, each hole made rapidly filled with water and caved in. Finally Colonel Drake originated the idea of driving an iron pipe through to bedrock. His success with it later made it the standard practice in oil fields.

After rock was reached, the actual drilling started. Three feet a day was the measure of progress. August 28, 1859, the well had reached the depth of 69 feet and the drill was working in coarse sand.

Uncle Billy Smith, Colonel Drake's assistant, was astonished one morning to find the well filled within a few feet of the surface with a dark fluid. He drew a sample of the liquid. It was oil!

The pumping apparatus was adjusted, and by noon the well was producing at the rate of twenty barrels a day. The problem of the ages was solved. The world's first oil well was producing!

MAP OF THE APPALACHIAN OIL FIELDS.

A FEW FEET FROM WHERE COLONEL DRAKE drilled the world's first oil well there was a sawmill. A few years before he came to Titusville, the oil observed by a Prof. Gillman, had been skimmed from Oil Creek to lubricate the mill machinery. And since refineries can add nothing to an oil that was not present in its crude state, PENNSYLVANIA GRADE OIL IS STILL SUPREME!

PENNSYLVANIA GRADE CRUDE, the Highest Grade Oil in the World, is found only in what is known as the Appalachian Oil Fields, located in the southwestern corner of New York state, western part of Pennsylvania, southeastern corner of Ohio, and in West Virginia.

PENNSYLVANIA OIL was discovered first. In many cases, things first found come first in quality—strange, indeed, is the fact that after millions of barrels of oil were brought to the surface by "gusher" wells in other parts of the country, Pennsylvania Oil still stands first in quality.

Ask for and insist upon getting STERLING OILS, refined from 100 per cent Pure Pennsylvania Oil. It has an incomparable lubricating film that will not "break down" under intense heat. It is the lowest cost lubricant in the end because it has the least carbon and gives reliable and efficient lubrication. Don't buy any other. You will know it by the insignia mark in the corners of this advertisement. All first class filling stations and garages recommend and sell STERLING OILS.

SHENANDOAH AT SAN DIEGO; LEAVES FOR
DESTINATION TODAY

By WILLIAM G. CAYCE
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.)

North Island, San Diego, Calif., Oct. 11.—Two of her three 500 horse power motors having been repaired during the night, in addition to taking aboard a quantity of helium gas, gasoline, water and other supplies, the U. S. Navy rigid dirigible Shenandoah, which was finally moored to her mast here at 1:02 o'clock this morning after successfully completing her jump from Fort Worth, Texas, was ready at daylight to resume her flight to Camp Lewis, Washington. Rear Admiral William Moffet, Chief of the Bureau of Naval Aeronautics, announced that the Shenandoah would leave here today between 9 o'clock and noon.

"We want to reach San Francisco by sundown today at least," Admiral Moffet said. According to his schedule the Shenandoah should pass over Los Angeles about 2 o'clock and reach its destination at Camp Lewis late tomorrow.

ZR-3 Not Ready To Fly
Today; May Take Off
For America Tomorrow

Friedrichshafen, Germany, Oct. 11. (INS).—The start of the trans-Atlantic voyage of the ZR-3 was postponed until tomorrow. The postponement was announced a half hour before the big dirigible was due to cast off for America.

Through the night plans had been made for an early morning departure of the last ship to be turned out at the Zeppelin factory. Under the terms of the Versailles treaty the Zeppelin factory must be destroyed. Dr. Hugo Eckener, director of the Zeppelin company and commander of the ZR-3, in its trans-Atlantic trip, had kept constantly in touch with the situation along the vessel's progress route, receiving reports by radio from points along the southern coast.

It had been planned to take the dirigible across Basel, Switzerland, to Bordeaux and thence to the Azores.

LAST NIGHT'S FIGHTS

New York: Louis "Kid" Kaplan, Meriden, Conn., knocked out Angel Lopez, Canal Zone, three rounds; Phil Rosenberg, New York, ten rounds; Dan Kramer, Philadelphia, knocked out Harold Farese, five rounds.

At Cleveland: Carl Tremaine, Cleveland bantam, won decision over Charley Goodman, New York, 12 rounds.

Syracuse: Billy Leonard, Syracuse, won judges' decision over Young Tenet, of Albany, six rounds.

CAMP ROBBERS AT WORK

Camp robbers descended on Camp Wilder, near Kennedy Park game reserve on Thursday and looted the camp of a dozen or more blankets and other valuables. The Clearfield County Hunter's Protective Association, of which the Wilder Club is a member, will give $100 reward for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the robbers, or the robbery of any other camp in the Association.

HEALTH REPORT IS FINE

Secretary Gaulin of the Board of Health reports a clean bill of health the past week for Clearfield again. Not a case of communicable disease developed during the week. The only case under quarantine is one of mumps and that is due for release in a day or two.

INCREASES

New York, Oct. 10. (INS).—Unfilled tonnage of the United States Steel Corporation on September 30 increased 185,203 tons as compared with August 31. Unfilled orders on September 30 amounted to 3,473,780 tons against 3,289,577 on August 31, a total of 1,877,072 on July 31, and 5,035,750 on September 30, 1923.

SHADEL IS GUILTY IN SECOND DEGREE; TO
BE SENTENCED TODAY

Middleburg, Pa., Oct. 11. (INS).—Ralph Shadel, 18, confessed slayer of Harvey Willow, his employer, in a mountain thicket last December, was sentenced to not more than 20 nor less than 10 years in the Eastern penitentiary today by Judge Miles E. Potter.

Shadel, his boyish face beaming with the joy of a new born life, stood quiet and calm as the sentence was pronounced. Since a second degree verdict was returned yesterday afternoon, he has entirely changed from the dazed, callow youth that has lived in the shadows of death since his confession last August.

Today he expressed his joy that his life had been spared, a gift on his 16th birthday. His one wish, he declared, was for another chance. And for the first time in months he has smiled.

Throughout the trial, Shadel has been pictured as a boy fully developed physically, but mentally deficient. He has been a victim of heredity and poverty, his counsel claimed, and was irresponsible; not insane, but a virtual slave to the more mature powers of Mrs. Annie Willow.

"You are a very lucky boy," Judge Potter declared in passing sentence. "Such crime is first degree murder." The maximum sentence was imposed.

The little court room was crowded to the doors as Shadel was led in. He looked at his parents as he sat down, awaiting the call to appear for sentence.

After being sentenced Shadel turned and embraced his parents. He was taken back to his cell, where he will likely be held until after Mrs. Annie Willow has been tried. It is possible that he will be called as a witness in the woman's case.

Although suffering a collapse yesterday, Mrs. Willow was somewhat better today. It was rumored that she would not be able to go on trial Monday because of her condition, but this report was given little credence by court attaches.

Middleburg, Pa., Oct. 11. (INS).—The first chapter in the alleged "love pact" slaying of Harvey Willow by Ralph Shadel, his 18 year old farm hand and Mrs. Annie Willow, will be written today when Judge Potter sentenced the youth, who was found guilty of second degree murder.

Shadel's fate was sealed by a jury late yesterday, after only two hours deliberation. By one of those grim tragedies of life, Ralph was convicted on his eighteenth birthday.

To the youth it was a birthday gift. A gift of life. The state had demanded death in the electric chair. When the verdict was read, Ralph just grinned. In the tearful embrace of his mother and father he began to understand. He chuckled then, laughed as he shook hands with those near.

Judge Potter's charge to the jury warned them not to return a first degree verdict if they thought Ralph irresponsible—the whole case of the defense. He cautioned them, however, to disregard pity but to remember "the pauper is to have the same justice as the millionaire."

Refuting the prosecution's contention that Shadel "knew he had done wrong," and was entirely responsible, A. Francis Gilbert, chief counsel for the defense, based his final address to the jury on the causes leading to loss of self-control.

"Many a man has been saved the penalty of death because they committed crimes when drunk with liquor," he declared.

"Then, how about this boy?" he asked, "who was intoxicated by a greater stimulant, a bad woman?" Mrs. Annie Willow, wife of the slain man, and named by Shadel as the instigator of the murder will be placed on trial Monday morning.

PHILIPSBURG STORE ROBBED

Thieves broke a display window in the J. F. Kephart Hardware Store on Front street in Philipsburg late last night and stole seven guns and a quantity of ammunition.

Three shot guns and four rifles were among the loot secured. Mr. Kephart places his loss at $300.

SHERIFF ARRESTS HIS
OWN SON ON CHARGE
OF SLAYING HIS WIFE

Carlinville, Ills., Oct. 10. (INS).—Arrested by his own father, Lester Kahl, 24 year old son of Deputy Sheriff E. A. Kahl, of Shipman, 16 miles south of here, today was being held in jail with a net of gruesome evidence tightly drawn about him as the slayer of his pretty thirteen day bride, Margaret, 21.

While Sheriff John H. Russell was preparing for an emergency in case the high feeling might lead to an attempt to lynch young Kahl, a coroner's jury was being sworn in to hold an inquest over the bullet riddled body of the bride.

The body was found last night in a shallow grave near Shipman, where Kahl led the Sheriff after he had confessed he shot his young bride. It had been buried two weeks.

"We had quarrelled over a girl I had kept company with," Young Kahl explained to the men who dug at the spot he had indicated. "Also she wanted new clothes which I felt I could not afford. I decided to shoot her."

"That same evening I asked her to help me shoot some dove. I told her to go around a hedge and scare the birds towards me. I planned however to plug her when she came around the hedge."

"The first shot bowled her over and she exclaimed 'You have done a good job of it.' I reloaded and shot her again. Then I hauled the body in a wagon to a spot a half mile away and dug a grave a couple of feet deep and covering the body with an army blanket, I buried her there."

The young girl's puzzling disappearance led to Kahl's arrest by his own father. She had been missing since Sept. 27. The Kahl's were married Sept. 2nd.

Unlawful Action Taken
To Prevent Organization
Of Klan At Glen Falls

Glen Falls, N. Y., Oct. 11. (INS).—A barrage of stones, clubs and bottles of ammonia thrown by a mob of nearly 2,000 persons greeted the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan last night when they attempted to organize in this city.

The crowd, composed largely of youths, stormed the building in which the meeting was held and smashed in the windows. Several of those who attended were assaulted. They said today but for the timely interference of the police they might have been seriously injured.

WHITE—SWANSON

Miss Esther Elizabeth Swanson, daughter of Mrs. Eva Swanson, of South Renovo, was married Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 8, in St. John's Lutheran Church to Sherman William White of Renovo. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. O. Bostrom, Pastor, in the presence of immediate relatives.

The bride was most becomingly gowned in a cocoa brown velveteen suit with hat to match and wore a corsage bouquet of bridal roses. Following the ceremony a luncheon was served at the bride's home, at the conclusion of which the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip which will take them to Erie, Philadelphia and New York. On their return they will take up house keeping in the home they have awaiting them in South Renovo.

The bride is well and most favorably known in Clearfield, she having been one of the popular and efficient teachers in the Market Street school the past two years, and her local friends join in sincerest congratulations.

New Castle Grid Fans
Meet With Mishaps On
State Road Near Here

A New Castle football team is playing at Harrisburg today and there was a steady stream of automobiles through Clearfield last night between 7 o'clock and midnight bearing New Castle fans to the state capital to cheer their home town boys on to victory or sympathize with them in defeat.

One car load consisting of Ken Allen, Ed Graham, Sara J. Ames, Mrs. G. H. Gilmore, Lou P. Bishop and Agnes Stinson were forced to spend the night in Clearfield by reason of a couple of accidents which befell them on the Clearfield-Curwensville road about one mile above town. Up near Hyde a car whizzed past so close that the rear fender on their car was caught and yanked off by the passing car.

The driver ran to the side of the road and stopped to take account of the damage done his machine. He failed to clear the concrete with his rear wheel and along came another car and whanging into the disabled machine completed what the other fellow started.

The car was pretty badly damaged, while Allen, who was caught in the smushup, suffered a badly bruised knee and hip. The others escaped injury. The driver of the first car to sideswipe the New Castle machine was a real road hog and never stopped to see what damage he had done. The second driver stopped and loading the scared and weary football fans into his car brought them to the Hotel Jordan, where they spent the night and then decided to continue the trip this morning and see that football game or die in the attempt.

PENNSY-GRAMS

Pittsburgh.—Two women are at their homes here today suffering from injuries received last night when an upbound incline car of the Duquesne Plane Company operating below the Point bridge left the rails a few feet from the upper landing. The car was suspended 600 feet in midair. Mrs. M. Brennan, 50, is suffering from a lacerated right foot and injured spine and Mrs. F. Slattery, 45, was bruised about the head.

Oil City, Pa., Oct. 11. (INS).—Vandalism to tombstones at the St. Joseph Catholic cemetery here became known today. Three tombstones were defaced by carving K. K. K. on the backs of all of them. In addition one of the tombstones had a hooded design carved on it.

Franklin.—Police are still searching today for the person or persons who raided the Catholic cemetery here, wrecking about ten tombstones, tearing up a water main and pulling up flowers.

Creighton.—Local police and posse composed of citizens from New Kensington, Tarentum and East Deer townships are searching the woods in this vicinity today for the negro who is alleged to have stabbed Mrs. Agnes Vaszki, 28, several times in her home near here when she resisted the man's attack. Mrs. Vaszki's body was found to her bed with her 6 weeks old daughter when the negro entered. After stabbing the woman the negro fled.

Carnegie.—George Rome, 65, a resident of this city for more than 40 years and a prominent business man of Chartiers Valley is dead here today, after a short illness. He was born in Portland, Me.

Philadelphia.—The first shot fired by Wm. Eckstein, 15, from his new revolver last night proved disastrous when it struck and perhaps fatally wounded Harry Smith, 11, one of his boy companions. Eckstein described the shooting as accidental. He is held by police pending the outcome of the other boy's injuries.

Philadelphia.—After a delay of 19 years, the estate of Israel Morris, former Iron merchant, valued in excess of $2,000,000 has just been adjudicated here. The three sons of Mr. Morris, originally made the three executors under his will, are all dead and the final account was filed by his grandsons. The delay was denounced by the court.

Philadelphia.—The alleged loss of approximately $180,000 by prominent Philadelphia by investing in worthless stocks was revealed here yesterday when C. J. Langley was held in $7,500 bail. Langley and Luther D. Lovelock, Chief engineer at the Hog Island shipyards during the war, are charged with securing stock in the Lehigh corporation and selling it at many times its value by misrepresentation.

BIG COLUMBUS DAY
CELEBRATION WILL BE GORGEOUS EVENT

The Columbus Day celebration in Clearfield on Monday promises to bring many thousands of visitors to our town. The committees of the local Sons of Italy lodge have every arrangement made for the big time and are now anxiously awaiting the arrival day and hoping for good weather.

The celebration will be held at the Driving Park and an interesting program of exercises and amusements has been provided for.

Addresses will be made by Hon. A. T. Chase, Hon. Singleton Bell, Walter Welch, Esq., Editor John F. Short and a number of representatives of the order Sons of Italy. The aim and purpose of the Sons of Italy is the Americanization of people of Italian birth who have come to this country to be proud of. Its membership is doing a great work in educating and fitting its members for better citizenship as all who are familiar with this work in the different communities where branches of this order are located testify.

The program at the Park Monday will start following the big street parade and in addition to the speech-making will consist of band concerts and hand contest, football game and other sports, while refreshments may be had upon the grounds. In the evening, what the committee in charge says will be the greatest fireworks exhibition ever shown here, will be given as a finale to the band concert and the day's activities. This fireworks program, which is made up of 42 set pieces and more than 500 bombs, will start at 7 o'clock.

The admission to the Park will be 50 cents during the afternoon and 25 cents from 5 to 7 p. m. School children will be admitted free from 5 to 7 to see the fireworks.

Columbus Day is a holiday in Pennsylvania and the Sons of Italy have properly decorated the main streets of our town and ask that all good citizens put up their American flags Monday in honor of Christopher Columbus and his discovery of this great continent of ours.

4 Year Old Finds Pistol,
Fatally Wounds Brother,
2, In Mother's Absence

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 10. (INS).—While his mother was at the home of a neighbor, four year old Paul Ryan last night found a pistol in a bureau drawer at their home in Hollywood Terrace, near here. The pistol went off while he played with it and fatally wounded his two year old brother, Earl, lying in bed in the room. He died later at the Wilmington Hospital.

DRAWING DECEMBER JURY

Jury Commissioners Harry Conner of Burnside and A. Y. Straw, of Pike township, assisted by Sheriff T. J. Lowell, are engaged in drawing the jury for December term of court. Also an adjourned week of September term, which starts Monday, November 17th.

The regular December term will last three weeks. The Grand Jury will meet Monday, December 1st, while criminal court starts December 15th. Civil court also starts December 1st.

SHOWER FOR NEWLYWEDS

Bess and Althea Hunter gave a shower to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd S. Owens at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Mac Roth of Irvin Hill. The bride received many useful gifts. After serving delicious refreshments the thirty-five guests departed for their homes wishing the bride and groom long year of happiness.

MRS OTIS RODGERS VERY ILL

Mrs. Otis Rodgers of Ogden avenue is a patient at the Clearfield Hospital and is reported to be quite seriously ill.

Hurry To Celebrate
Hallowe'en Will Get
Youths Into Trouble

General complaint from every section of the town regarding alleged Hallowe'en tactics of antics of the boys and girls of the town was caused Burgess Kittelberger to appear in special police officers for each ward of the town for the purpose of breaking up this silly practise of starting in two or three weeks before the time and annoying the people by soaping windows, windshields and headlights of automobiles, pulling doorbells and throwing dirt and rubbish against windows and on front porches.

These practises are being indulged in by youngsters all over the town and it must stop at once or the parents of these same youngsters will be called upon to pay fines for the perpetrators of these annoyances. There is no excuse for this malicious mischief and it is up to the parents to see that a stop is put to it.

Automobile drivers, the headlights and windshields of whose machines have been soaped several different times the past week, have appealed to the State Highway Department about it and the motor patrol has been directed to seek out the perpetrators of these acts regardless of their ages or intentions and bring prosecution against them in each case, as this is an especially dangerous practise.

Burgess Kittelberger, who was a boy once himself, says the bars will be let down to all reasonable "horse play" or hallowe'en on the last two nights of October, two regular and appointed time for such alleged fun on the part of the youngsters, but all work of this nature up to that time will get the guilty boy or girl in trouble and their parents will be asked to settle for their shortcomings.

Parents should take this warning in the spirit that animates the Burgess and instruct their sons, and daughters too, to cease their annoyances until the proper season arrives.

GIANTS LOOM BIG
AS SPORTSMEN IN
DEFEAT IN SERIES

By DAVIS J. WALSH
(I. N. S. Sports Editor.)

New York, Oct. 11.—Something after the manner of Napoleon's historic retreat from Moscow, the chastened New York Giants arrived in town this morning on an overnight train from Washington, secretly convinced that the better team lost, but publicly giving due credit to the Senators for their victory in the world's series.

Strange to say, they were almost debonair in defeat. The so-called little Napoleon, John J. McGraw, hardly presented the aspect of the dejected, slumped-over figure that a great artist painted of that earlier retreat. He was not jubilant; neither was he forlorn.

Somehow the Giants had arrived at the conclusion that fate as much as the Senators, had beaten them and at the same time the individual players were quick to shoulder what blame was theirs.

"I let Harris' hit in the eighth play me," said young Fred Lindstrom.

"I grooved one for Harris in the third," declared Barnes.

"I should have been able to get that crack out from under my feet," quoth Gowdy.

And so it went. There was little or no blame to be taken and the players took it.

Although careful to avoid committing themselves to the effect, the Giants to a man still believed they were the best ball club.

A tip-off on their attitude was the fact that few of them carried hand baggage, this being not a case of neglect, but of supreme self-confidence. When the club departed for Washington to play the sixth game, George Kelly didn't even carry a tooth brush.

He expected to be on his way to New York the night of the sixth game with the series ended and the Giants the winner.

Perhaps the man who should have taken defeat the hardest seemed to be the most buoyant. A desperate opponent, John McGraw—also proved himself a cheerful loser.

He hastened to make graceful admission of the fact that the Senators (Continued On Page Two.)

STATE S. S. WORKERS
END SUCCESSFUL
ANNUAL MEETING

Washington, Pa., Oct. 10. (INS).—With most of its routine business cleared up the State Sabbath School annual convention prepared to close today after one of the most successful and enthusiastic meetings in its history. The following officers were elected to serve for the coming year for the teacher's training alumni following a banquet last night: President, Dr. M. Hadwin Fischer; Vice President, John C. Cole, Coatsville; Secretary, George W. Penniman, Wilkinsburg; Treasurer, W. I. Stone, Waverly.

The State Federation of organized adult bible classes re-elected the following officers: President John W. Vickerman, Bellevue; Vice Presidents, H. D. English, Pittsburgh; C. F. Essenschiede, Bedford; Kennedy, Crumming, Meadville; R. E. Engle, Pittsburgh; Connessman M. C. Kelly, Edgewood; Samuel L. Grotz, Yellert, York; Judge Thomas F. Bailey, Huntinton; Mrs. John Y. Day, Harrisburg; Mrs. W. B. Easton, Stroudsburg; Mrs. Alice Hoke, Philadelphia. Secretary George W. Penniman, Wilkinsburg; Treasurer W. I. Stone, Waverly.

The Treasurer's report for the year made public last night showed $59,000 was used out of $65,000 subscribed to the organization last year. The report of the budget committee called for the expenditure of approximately $72,400 for this year. Almost $50,000 was raised for this purpose yesterday.

At the open meeting of the convention delegates today resolutions were adopted condemning Sunday baseball, and other Sunday sports.

Special mention was made again of the Sunday World's Series baseball games. Resolutions were also adopted condemning immoral shows at County Fairs and recommending drastic action be used to stop such shows. Officers who uphold the law were praised and summary action against officers guilty of malfeasance of duty was urged.

After a spirited contest, Erie, Pa. was selected as the meeting place of next year's convention, but the efforts of Reading delegates to obtain the convention led to a recommendation favoring that city for the 1925 convention.

Percy L. Craig of New Castle, was re-elected President of the Association for the sixth consecutive year and all other important officers were also re-elected.

FULL ROUND OF ACTIVITY
AT THE "Y" THESE DAYS

The Physical Department activities of the Y. M. C. A. are getting well under way since their opening last week. The boys and girls especially were anxious for the gym to open and their classes have increased each period. A good number attended the ladies' class last Friday evening, 7:30 and the senior class on Monday and Thursday got a good start. An effort will be made to get the business men lined up on Monday at 10 o'clock and it will not be long until things are in full swing. Physical examinations were started this week and as soon as the majority have been given, a physical development contest will start. Another examination will be given at the close of the indoor season and the ones making the most improvement will be awarded prizes. Next week the classes will be divided into teams with their captain and lieutenant and compete in various athletics, swimming, gymnastics and games for points. The team securing the most points during the next couple months will be awarded individual contests will also be planned and started soon.

A good season is anticipated from present indications the athletic will no doubt eclipse the 1923 persons which attended during the last ten months. Basketball, volleyball, indoor baseball, swimming, around athletics, gymnastics, calisthenics, etc., should draw a crowd any time. The classes can also stand additions, the more the better.

The department has been thoroughly renovated, a few small improvements made and the apparatus in first class condition.

Giants' Loom Big

deserved their victory, discounted the breaks that decided the final game and predicted a brilliant career for Stanley Harris, the 27-year-old manager.

"I don't feel badly about it," said McGraw. "Defeat is just something that must be taken in its stride. It's part of life. You can't win all the time and now that it is all over, it doesn't mean so much to me as you might imagine. I have had plenty of winners in my time."

"The breaks helped to stop us but breaks are part of every ball game and we would have had to get them to win."

"I think Harris deserves a lot of credit for the way he handled his team. He is still young and should have lots of winners before he is thru with baseball. I hope he has as many as I have had."

"I was glad that it was Johnson who beat us as long as some one had to. I would rather have him do it than anyone I know."

In the Courts

Judge Chase, in an order made this morning, dismissed the application of certain Ball township citizens for the removal of O. D. Gould from the office of Supervisor of said township.

An order was made directing that Leslie Bloom, young son of Frank Bloom of Home Camp, be taken to the Allegheny General hospital for treatment in the orthopedic department of that institution. The county will pay the costs of such treatment, up to $500. The boy is a cripple and is being treated by the Cripple Child Welfare Committee of the DuBois Rotary Club located here and a physician who examined him decided the boy could be cured or helped a lot and the matter was then presented to the Court under the terms of an Act of Assembly governing such cases or conditions. S. S. Probyn of DuBois, was empowered to get the boy and take him to Pittsburgh.

Kramer & Kramer entered suit in the Clearfield county courts today on behalf of James Rider of Curwensville and against Kelly D. Bloom, of Curwensville. In this suit Mr. Rider endeavors to recover $1161.60 from Mr. Bloom for labor and services rendered during the past year as manager and operator of Bloom's ice plant in Curwensville.

M. J. McMahon, of Brookville, Pa. by his attorneys Arnold & Platt, asked the Court on Friday for a mandamus compelling the Commissioners of Clearfield county to pay him $2,241.57 alleged to be due on his contract for building a portion of State road in Sandy township.

The statement alleges that not only is the money due the contractor but that the bill has the approval of the County Controller A. G. Woodward and should be paid and claims the payment is withheld by the Commissioners at the request of "certain strangers or alleged creditors of McMahon."

In the answer to the request for a mandamus filed by County Solicitor Liveright the Commissioners deny that the bill has the approval of the County Controller Woodward and appends copy of a letter from A. C. Guth, of Brookville who claims an interest in the amount alleged to be due as a sort of "silent partner" of McMahon, and who has filed a bill in equity against McMahon attaching the money, a copy of which has been served upon the Commissioners, who will make no payment pending the adjudication of this suit.

Why Wood Fire Crackles

In wood there are a great many small holes or cells. Some of these have a little moisture in them. When the wood gets hot this moisture turns to steam and bursts the cells. This makes a noise like a small explosion, and a great many such noises together make the crackle of the fire.

Noises Affect Hearing

Most middle-aged residents of large cities are slightly deaf, due it is said, to the continuous roar of traffic.

King of Mountains

Mount Everest is nearly as high as the combined heights of Mount Cook (the highest mountain in New Zealand), Fuji-Yama (the highest in Japan), and Ben Nevis (the highest in the British Isles).

Fish Frozen in Ice

It is said that there are authentic cases of fishes and frogs which have survived after having been incased in solid ice. This is because cold-blooded creatures such as fish and frogs have a very low standard of heat. Their body temperature is only slightly above that of the surrounding atmosphere. However, fishes and frogs frozen in ice would not usually survive. —Pittsburgh Magazine.

Mental Riches and Poverty

To be happy, the temperament must be cheerful and gay, not gloomy and melancholy. A propensity to hope and joy is real riches; only to fear and sorrow, is real poverty. —Hume.

Conquered by Jelly Fish

Myriads of jelly fish, stirred from depth of a heavy sea, clung to and stung a German swimmer recently, so severely that he abandoned the contest.

Irwin's Drug Store

Glenn Curtiss Says "It's Surprising!"

After a demonstration in the new Willys-Knight Sedan equipped with the Lanchester Balancer, the famous aeroplane builder said—"It is surprising. I drove the car at all speeds up to 50 miles an hour and found absolutely no engine vibration."

Vibrationless Motoring

Automobile engineers have been striving for many years to lay the ghost of vibration—but it has remained for the Willys-Knight to bring to the United States the secret of vibrationless engine-running.

The Lanchester Balancer—a great discovery by a great genius—the invention of Dr. F. W. Lanchester, F.R.S., of Great Britain, builder of one of the world's most expensive motor cars.

With this new ingenuity of engineering, Willys-Knight achieves positive engine smoothness at all speeds. A smoothness almost incredible to the thousands and thousands of automobile owners who have always thought vibration in a car to be a necessary evil.

This achievement is all the more notable for being sponsored by a car with so many other great achievements to its credit. Willys-Knight long since ended the days of valve-grinding and carbon-cleaning—and the Willys-Knight sleeve-valve engine is known around the world as the engine that improves with use.

Leading engineering authorities, car owners, the public generally, are impressed by Willys-Knight's vibrationless performance. A ride is a new thrill—a new experience—a new conception of motoring pleasure. Take a ride today!

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Anybody who can explain how Mr. Coolidge could fail to have a commanding lead in the Literary Digest's poll is entitled to put in a claim as master of the world's highest mathematics.

According to the Literary Digest's own figures, defining party members as they voted in the last election, the Digest has sent its ballots to 402,186 Republicans and 141,868 Democrats. The Digest has thus given 28 Republicans a chance to vote for every ten Democrats who have one of its post card ballots.

But in the eighteen states from which results have been reported, the ratio of Republicans to Democrats, even in the landslide year of 1920, was only 20.6 to 10. The difference between 28 to 10 and 20.6 to 10 is difference enough to weigh the election hopelessly against a Democratic candidate. Of course, the Digest doesn't give its voting list. But the electorate it polls is no more a true sample even of the 1920 electorate than those proportions indicate.

Carbon monoxide poisoning is claimed yearly in all modern countries more deaths (including accidental and suicidal gas asphyxiations) than from any other cause, according to Dr. Charles Norris, chief medical examiner of New York City, in an address before the National Association of Fire and Police surgeons. Dr. Norris

"Carbon monoxide poisoning is a disease of industrial life, as in coal mines and among workers about gas machines. It is the most widespread toxic agent of modern civilization because of its application in industry, in production of light and warmth in houses and the health hazard in street by automobile and other gasoline engines. Carbon monoxide claims more victims as regards health and life than any other poison.

"In closed spaces, as garages, it is certain many fatal accidents occur yearly that are not recorded in mortality statistics. A recent investigation showed that a small car produces one and larger cars or trucks two, cubic feet of carbon monoxide per minute, and when an engine is run idle with doors closed the atmosphere of a space large enough to hold a car is contaminated to a dangerous extent."

Recent experiments by a British zoologist have led to the discovery that male butterflies like to get drunk while the females shun liquor, says Popular Science Monthly. The butterflies were placed in a screened garden with bowls of whiskey and water, the males invariably took to the liquor.

Railroad profits totaled ten billions of dollars in the last 12 years and are now running at approximately a billion a year, E. H. Fitzgerald, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, Freight Handlers and Station Employees, declared in opening the wage hearing involving the Brotherhood's request for a revocation of 1920 wage rates before the United States Railroad Labor Board today.

Fitzgerald cited the increasing prosperity of the industry as ground for a reconsideration of the present wage. The rate established by the Board in 1920 were cut by it during the depression, extending through 1921 and 1922, when he said, the Board stated it would be able to "give increased consideration to the scientific adjustment of a living and saving wage" when the condition of the carriers was improved.

He quoted statistics of the National Industrial conference board and government figures in an effort to show that wages of other wage earners were close to or above the 1920 level and contend that the employees that he represented should be accorded the same measure of justice. Their earnings, he said, fell more than ten per cent short of enabling them to obtain as good a living for their families as the wages of 1895 provided."

THE LOVE-BET

A sure box-office winner was secured when Fredrick V. Bowers and his gang in the chummy musical comedy "The Love Bet" was booked. No attraction of a similar nature has been met with such favor. The idea is an entirely new one. The music is delightful and the costumes and scenery, exquisite. The attraction will be at the Driggs Theatre on Tuesday, October 14th.

About thirty of the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. John Banks dropped in on them at their home on Clearfield street last evening and helped Mr. and Mrs. Banks celebrate their 17th wedding anniversary.

Miss Esther Miles, one of the primary teachers at Market street school, is quite seriously ill at the Clearfield hospital and will likely have to undergo a surgical operation.

You Can Have Your Store Represented On Every Clearfield County Farm

Every farm in this county can be told of the real service your store and, what's very important, yourself and your own personality can be taken to every farm.

Right now the farmer's a mighty busy man. He's trying to beat the frosts. He's up to his neck, figuratively speaking, in work. But — his family are all wide-awake to the call of good advertising. They will respond.

OCTOBER LIVE STOCK ISSUE COMES OUT NEXT TUESDAY

This Live Stock Issue has become a fixture on many farms. It is looked for just as closely as many of the other periodicals that are published. And for this reason your store story, your service story, YOUR ADVERTISEMENT, will get real attention from every member of the family.

Just now the women folks on the farms are interested in their winter wearables. Same is true of the men. The whole family is interested in radio — an idea for the merchants selling radio apparatus. There isn't a store or a service in this city but what will benefit greatly by using liberal space in the October Live Stock Issue.

Get us your copy as early as you can. The earlier we get your copy, the better service we can give you. The copy MUST all be in the office, however, not later than five o'clock Monday afternoon.

PEOPLE WHO MOVE

Postoffices are always busy changing addresses on the mail of people who have moved somewhere else. It is one of the worst postal problems. Business firms are everlastingly obliged to revise their mailing lists. It was deduced from postal figures furnished in a typical industrial city the other day that one family out of every 10 moved at least once every six months. That means 20 per cent of the people moving once a year, or the average family moving once every five years.

Such mobility of population would be incredible in any Old World city, where often the same family occupies a house for several generations. It is so exceptional in an American city for an old person to die in the home he was born in that the newspapers ment on that fact as remarkable.

All these movings cost an enormous lot of money to the movers and make an enormous lot of trouble for them and other people. Still, it would be worse if they never moved.

Moving is evidence of life, activity, progress, improvement. People usually move into a better house, or one they think is better. And often a change without obvious improvement is made in itself, because it stirs people up.

FEEDING BOYS AND GIRLS

Parents who think they would rather have boys than girls can console themselves with the knowledge that it costs more to feed boys. That has always been assumed, from casual observation, but now a German scientist has proved it.

Up to the age of 13 years there is little difference between the sexes in appetite, as in most other respects. From 10 to 13 years, boys and girls alike eat 60 per cent as much as adults. From 13 to 16 they eat 80 per cent as much as grown-ups, while girls eat only 70 per cent as much. After that, the boys eat as much as grown men; while the girls, from 13 on, through their teens and in mature womanhood, eat only 80 per cent as much. So, if it costs $200 a year to feed the adolescent boy, it costs only $160 to feed the girl.

There may be no question about these figures as to the comparative appetites of the two sexes. But somehow the comparison with adult appetites, on the part of boys and girls both, seems inadequate. It may be true enough in Germany, where grown-ups are notorious eaters. But in America, what father will not maintain that every boy over the age of 12 eats more than he does?

ANTI-LYNCHING SENTIMENT

Only 30 years ago in this country public opinion apparently tolerated lynchings, and 200 a year were not uncommon. Slowly the number declined, until last year there were only 23. In the first six months of 1924 only five lynchings were reported.

The gradual decline of this evil is very important. Partly it is attributed to better inter-racial feeling. The work of churches and inter-racial commissions in sections where lynchings have been common has helped tremendously to create a more harmony and also greater respect for law.

The most hopeful element in the case, however, is that public sentiment is increasingly opposed to lynching and that public sentiment, rather than anti-lynching laws, is accomplishing the desired end. When the public recognizes an evil square and takes a positive stand against it, that evil is bound to fall. And in the same way, if only it could be generally realized, when public sentiment recognizes a good cause and takes a definite stand for it, that cause is bound to succeed.

Progress Editorials For Women

JAZZ ENGLISH

By FLORENCE DAVIES.

"Toots, squawks and nasal tones"—that is what a New York professor says the American of today gives out, in his hurry to get somewhere. The good old art of conversation? Every man is dying out, according to this pleader for real language.

Passing lightly over the extraordinary twist given by the cockney to his mother tongue, we agree that "phonetic English" is the professor's young Anglification of today, is little if any better. There was a library page once who warned us of "a nyle in that chyre" when we were about to sit down and tear a flimsy gown. The warning had to be translated in those days the London cockney was less well known in every-day fiction of newspapers—but the accent lingered in mind long after the chair had been freed of the tearing nail.

However, the point is that "Wha-jogondo?" and the "Gee, Gosh and Golly" school of speech, are on a low level as an expression of thought.

Africa's Termites.

Before the Biological society, in London, a naturalist described his studies of the African termites, or white ants. Certain individuals in every nest have no other apparent function except that of builders or soldiers. Some have a long body, from which they erect an arched, coracoid shield; others inspire terror by making a loud clicking noise with their mandibles; but they neither shoot nor bite. One singular observation of the naturalist was that the soldier ants, which are out to defend an attacked nest, do not return to the nest, but wander about, and soon perish from exposure to the outside air.

Chemicals Carried to Sea

Thirty-two of the ninety two elements known to exist have been found in sea water. Scientists believe that most of the others are there, and await merely the development of new methods of chemical analysis to bring them to light. These elements have been washed into the sea from the rocks of the land. Every year 500,000,000 tons of salts are washed into the sea by the American rivers.

Stray Bit of Wisdom

One man pins me to the wall, while with another I walk among the stars.—Emerson.

Slightly in Error

Jud Tunkine says he sees several men fooling themselves the same as he did when he thought for a minute he was at the head of the class only the teacher was coming from the other side.

The professor harks back to Oxford English and says "In 200 more years people won't recognize the words on the phonograph records of our time." We should like to think that today's jargon would be unrecognizable because the American of the year 2124 A. D. had progressed beyond such crudities.

We have a "Better Speech Week", and it serves to point the way to careful, musical, as well as grammatical expression, through our native tongue. But one week out of 52 will never round our bad ways. Why not a daily watch over that unruly member, the tongue? We have been told that unkind, vulgar, profane, cruel and bitter words, should be forbidden to issue from the gates of speech. Now let us watch with equal vigilance for the uncouth, the "jazzy"—Puggoes, that tumble over each other on the vivid cherry-red lips of today.

The old fairy tales of the good little maiden from whose lips dropped pearls and diamonds when she spoke, and her ugly rival whose disposition was so bad that only tords and scorpions came from her mouth, haven't outlived their application yet.

A Concealed Statue.

There is in the Crystal Palace in London, an equestrian statue 30 feet high. In 1850 it was decided to move it to heavy to move, and the present grand orchestra was built up around it. Of the millions that frequent the palace, few have any suspicion of the statue's existence.—Scientific American.

Feet of Comfort.

A lady writes from Roscombe, Eng. "Bird Notes and News": "I wish you could have seen a chaffinch's nest that one of the catlets showed me. It was built near the railway station, and a cat had pulled it down. We thought at first it had the usual lichen and moss on the outside, but closer examination showed the lichen to be white soufflé, with jagged edges, and the moss was the green bast used to the sp flowers, all woven in and wrinkled up to resemble moss. There had evidently been a wedding party at the station."

Use for Old Films

Old cinematograph films, after being holed down and having a certain proportion of silver removed, are used for making patent leather.

Latin Derivative

Corporal is derived from the same Latin word as captain, but with an admixture of the meaning and spelling of the English word corps. Corporalis in medieval Latin meant a chief or commander; hence the French corporal.

WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT WORK

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Stopped Her Suffering and Restored Her Health

Momence, Illinois.—"I surely can recommend your medicine to other women who have female weakness, as it has helped me very much in every way possible. I was working in a dining room in town, and sometimes I could not do my work; had pains in the lower part of my body and had to stay in bed. One of my neighbors told me what good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for her, and it has surely done wonders for me. I hope all women who suffer will take my advice as the Vegetable Compound has done so much to bring back my vigor and strength."—Mrs. ALBERT B. DESCHAUD, Momence, Illinois.

Over 121,000 women have so far replied to our question: "Have you received benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?" 98 per cent. of these replied "Yes."

That is 98 out of every 100 women who take this medicine for the ailments for which it is recommended are benefited by it. For sale by druggists everywhere.

The Cozy Fires

Add Much To Your Eating Pleasures

It's a delightful thing to sit down here to lunch with cozy fires burning in the grates and the real homelike atmosphere that prevails at every meal. Harlequin patrons are like a large family, too. Everybody's friendly.

Harlequin Tea Room

It Happens Every Day

When you've been looking around for a good used runabout and you find plenty of used ones, but no good ones—at your idea of a fair price—

And some that are offered to you look like a million dollars in the garage and then sound like change for a half-dollar when they get out on the road for a demonstration—

And others seem to have good engines left in them, but the chassis are about as modern and good-looking as a 1910 derby hat—

And just when you're convinced that the used runabout market is thoroughly on the "blink", a friend suggests that you might take a look through the Progress Automotive columns in the classified section—

And you give the idea a try, and right away things begin to look brighter, because you find a number of ads about cars that sound as though they might be what you want—

And you look up the best-described one and find it's just as the ad said, "1923 model, engine like new," and that you can buy it at a real bargain figure—

Oh, Man, That's What You Call Service!

ELECTION PROCLAM

GOD SAVE THE COMMONWEALTH

I, Thomas H. Lowell, High Sheriff of the County of Clearfield, in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby make known and give notice to the Electors of the County of Clearfield, Pennsylvania, on Tuesday the Fourth Day of November, A. D., Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-four, it being the Tuesday following the first Monday of November. The polls to be open from 7 A. M. to 7 P. M., at by ballot for the purpose of electing the following officers:

Thirty-eight Persons for Presidential Electors. One Person for Judge of the Superior Court. One Person for State Treasurer. One Person for Auditor General. One Person for Representative in General Assembly.

To vote a straight party ticket, mark a cross (x) in the square, in the first column, opposite the name of the party of your choice. A cross mark in the square at the head of a group of presidential electors, opposite the name of a party and its presidential candidates, is a vote for all the electors of that party, but for no individual candidate. A cross mark in the square opposite the name of any candidate indicates a vote for that candidate. To vote for a person whose name is not on the ballot, write or paste his or her name in the blank space provided for that purpose. This shall count as a vote either with or without the cross. To vote for an individual candidate of another party after making a mark in the party square, mark a cross (X) opposite his or her name. To vote for an office where more than one candidate is to be elected, the voter, after marking in the party square, may divide his or her vote by marking a cross (X) to the right of each candidate for that office, but candidates not individually marked.

Whale of an Infant
According to Mr. Henry Nesbit, an American authority, the whale is a mammal, and the female bears one whale calf a year. Until the young fish is six months old it is nursed by the mother just as any land baby of the mammal type is. A mother whale has been seen to swim through the water with its young cradled in its flippers.

Holds Tidal Record
In the Bay of Fundy, New Brunswick, the world's highest tides are recorded. Here they often reach as high as 100 feet. On the other hand, the coast of Ireland, at Arklow, there is no perceptible tide at all, and scientists are making constant study to ascertain the reason for this variation.

Market News

New York, Oct. 11.—The highly professional character of the stock market, which has been in evidence since the middle of September, was in no way altered this week.

Movements of stock prices recorded little more than the activities of professional traders. The volume of transactions declined to mid-gunner proportions in some of the sessions, for which a partial explanation was found in the baseball championship games and the Yom Kippur holiday.

Sharp but narrow fluctuations in industrial leaders, continued heaviness in the oil stocks, reactionary movements in motors, equipments, independent steel shares, firmness in copper and sugar stocks and the oil were the main characteristics of a dull and drab stock market, in which public participation was negligible.

PENNSY. AUTHORIZED TO BUY 10,000 BOX CARS

Washington, Oct. 10. (INS.)—The Pennsylvania railroad was authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission today to issue $15,750,000 of equipment trust certificates to be used in the purchase of 10,000 box cars.

THE LOVE BET

On next Tuesday at the Driggs Theatre, an offering not to be missed by those who wish to see a refreshing wholesome musical comedy, briskly diverting, frolicsome and nicely flavored with bright dialogue, is "The Love Bet" with the celebrated musical comedy favorite and song writer, Fredrick V. Bowers and his gang of New York players. This piece has been heralded by all critics as the best of musical comedy on the road this season. The authors of the book are Walter Decker and John P. Mulgrew the lyrics and music by Fredrick V. Bowers and Charles Lewis the dances arranged by Ben Grinnell and it is stated by George E. Stoddard, Fredrick V. Bowers, than whom there is none better known as a singer and writer of popular songs sends his audience away nightly humming or whistling "When the Stars are Shining." The scenic equipment and costumes are very elaborate.

Mrs. A. K. Staver and Miss Bess Logan are spending a few days in Philadelphia.

Misses Nora, Jennie, and Esther Lynn and Gordon Lynn, of Jamestown, N. Y., visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Rowles on Weaver street.

Miss Edith Larson of Pittsburgh and Miss Esther Larson of Oshanter spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. John Rowles.

Miss Dorothy Soulsby of Altoona is visiting her brother Bert Soulsby of Turnpike avenue.

Sensibility and Suffering
Women endowed with remarkable sensibilities enjoy much, but they also suffer much. The greater the light, the stronger the shadow.—Anna C. Howatt.

Only Small Birds Sing

Have you thought of it? It is only the small birds that sing? You never heard a note of a song from the eagle in your life, nor from the turkey on the ostrich; but you have heard it from the robin and the lark and the meadow lark and the canary, and how they can sing! So it is from the little folks that we expect the best and sweetest things, the most cheerful and most loving work. So, too, we expect to hear them sing as they go—Grit.

Millions in Cactus

Luther Burbank, the plant wizard, claimed that in a few years the annual crop of the fruit-bearing, spineless cactus will be valued at millions of dollars.

Scrambled Egg

"The man who said price goes before a fall," said Uncle Eben, "had it right. When a man's bragging the loudest 'bout hein' a tough egg, dat's jos de-time when somebody's gine'er come along and scramble 'im."

Such Is Human Nature

Lots of men would never think of trespassing if they didn't see a notice to the effect that it wasn't allowed.

Two Hundred Hornets

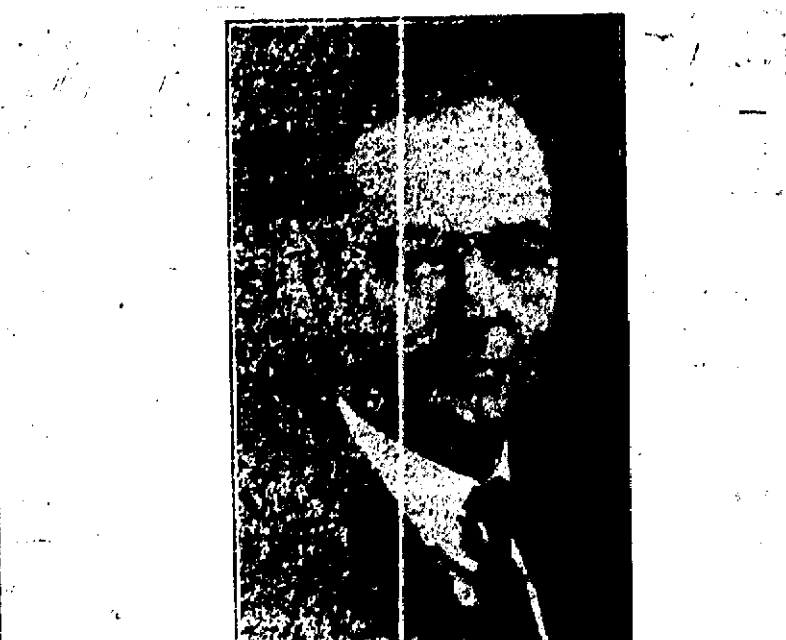

About two hundred is the average insect population of a hornet's nest, but occasionally the number runs up to four hundred.

Envy's Ugly Root

The least judicious, or even who have nothing to recommend selves will be finding fault with it. No man envies the merit of a man who has enough of his own.—B. Life.

One of the Best

One way to save listening to troubles is to keep up a constant log of your own.—Buffalo Express.

Chiropractic

Female Disorders or abnormal function of the reproductive organs in women cause more distress than is generally credited to them.

Aside from Painful Menstruation, Irregular Periods, Illity, Painful Urination and a few others that are readily cured as female disorders, there are many others that can be attributed to this cause. Among them are Dizziness, Indigestion, Headaches, Enlargement of Thyroid (Goiter), Constipation, Uterine pregnancy, etc.

The effect may be treated with more or less success. CHIROPRACTIC removes the cause.

To those who would enjoy the benefits of Good Health, the courtesy of a Spinal Analysis and Consultation is extended without obligation.

Lesson for October 12

THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT

LESSON TEXT—Matt. 6:16-18.
GOLDEN TEXT—Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.—Mat. 6:10.
PRIMARY TOPIC—The Prayer That Jesus Taught.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Lord's Prayer.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Principles of Christian Living.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Sermon on the Mount in Daily Living.

The so called Sermon on the Mount is not indeed a sermon but a proclamation of the principles and laws which shall obtain in Christ's Kingdom when it shall be established on the earth. In applying the teachings of Matthew 5-7 two errors should be avoided, namely, that of the legalist who makes these principles the hard and fast standard of life for the believer today and also that of the one who denies that the principles or laws of the Kingdom are binding upon believers. Believers have practically the same relation to the Sermon on the Mount that they have to the Ten Commandments. While free from their demands as law, they find delight in retaining them as expressions of God's holy law and thus rejoice in the consciousness that Christ has met all the requirements thereof and that their standing before God is in Him.

I. False Prayer (vv. 5-7).
1. This consists in one praying to be seen and heard of men (v. 5). To go through the act of praying with such an object is to play the hypocrite. Many of the prayers uttered in the public sanctuary are false, for there is more consideration of what the people think than of what God thinks. In prayer the soul is dealing with God. Therefore, engaging in it to attract men's attention is blasphemy. Men who thus pray get a reward, but not from God. They pray to get notice from men and they get such notice.

2. Vain Repetition (vv. 7, 8). This does not mean that we should ask but once for the thing desired, for we have examples of Christ and Paul praying three times for the same thing (Matt. 26:39-41; II Cor. 12:7, 8), but rather it means the use of meaningless repetitions, the meaningless reiterations of empty sounds. To pray thus is heathenish. The heathen nations in their worship of idols engage in senseless babble, which we see in the priests of Baal on Mt. Carmel (I Kings 18:26).

3. True Prayer (v. 6).
Since true prayer is a definite transaction of the soul with God, the communion of the human personality with the divine personality, we should have a real desire for fellowship with God and then go and meet Him in secret.

Life for its fullest development needs both solitude and companionship. Solitude alone makes one morose, while constant companionship makes one shallow. God who made us knew what our natures required. Therefore, He commands both public and private prayer (Heb. 10:25; Matt. 6:6).

III. The Model Prayer (vv. 9-13). This was given in response to the disciples' request that the Lord would teach them how to pray. It is not, therefore, the Lord's prayer, but the model prayer for the disciples which involves:

1. A Right Relationship (v. 9). "Our Father." Only those who have become children of God by faith in Jesus Christ (Gal. 3:26) can pray aright. One must be a child of God before he can be in communion with God.

2. A Right Attitude (vv. 9, 10). "Hallowed be Thy name." When one realizes that he has been delivered from the power of darkness and translated into the Kingdom of His dear Son (Col. 1:13) by being made a child of God, he cannot help pouring out his soul in gratitude and praise, intensely longing for the Kingdom, the righteous rule of Christ on the earth.

3. A Right Spirit (vv. 11-13).
(1) That of trust which looks to God for the supply of daily bread. We are dependent upon Him for our daily food.

(2) That of love which results in forgiveness of others. God will not listen to the prayers of one who has an unforgiving spirit.

(3) That of holiness which moves one to pray not to be led into temptation and longs to be delivered from the evil one.

Believe

We are not to keep on looking out for the Kingdom of God, but to believe firmly that it is come, and to live and act in that knowledge and assurance. Then will it indeed be come for us.—Hare.

The Question

The question is not "How much of God do I have?" but, "How much of me does God have?" Am I wholly yielded?—Gospel Minister.

CHURCHES

THE NEAR EAST PROBLEM

That great interest of humanity, especially of children, has a growing appeal to the American people. This cause assumes such large proportions as to put it beyond a mere voluntary and temporary basis. It has been incorporated by an act of Congress. It now has a legal entity, and fixed regulations. Responsibility is written over the entire movement. The huge needs of that wasted land still cry to heaven.

Next Sunday Clearfield will have a challenge to respond, in its characteristic way, to this clear cause—the helpless children in lands where the older folks can afford no aid, even of shelter.

Lieutenant Frank Connes, of New York, will be at West Side Methodist Church in the morning. He has been three times in Turkey and through the Near East territory; often in Russia; and speaks fluently eight languages. At the present time he is chief interpreter for the New York State Supreme Court. He knows this work at first hand.

Mrs. Laura McDowell, who was in that stricken field, under the most acute conditions of suffering and peril, will be in the morning at the Baptist church.

Mrs. Charles R. Gannaway, wife of a physician in charge of a hospital in the Taurus mountain section, is bringing little Zadi, a "Daughter of Freedom," whose history is as thrilling and tragic as thousands of her race and age, who fell on the highways in the terrible deportations of those cruel days—all too well known. They will speak at Trinity church at School and in the morning worship. They will appear in the evening at the Lutheran church.

Clearfield is very fortunate in getting these representatives of this envying interest, for they are not officials, but workers, whose days were filled with terrible tasks of relief and sympathy. Let the people turn out for these honored workers.

At the Presbyterian Church, on Sunday morning, this pressing philanthropy will be presented by the Rev. W. Gilbert Condit, D.D., of Newark, N. J. Out of the hardest experiences in those desolated regions, he will report conditions as he knows them.

Your Vacation Trip

DON'T spoil it with avoidable engine trouble. Much overheating, faulty operation, excess carbon and loss of power are due to incorrect lubrication.

Before you go—we can give you lubrication insurance—Gargoylle Mobiloil.

Drive around. Let us drain your crank-case and refill it with correct grade, as recommended on the Vacuum Oil Company's chart.

Make sure you get genuine Gargoylle Mobiloil when you need it on the road—take some of the New Quart cans along on your next trip. We have it in 5 gal. cans and steel drums for the Home Garage, too. Then if you'll replenish your oil supply as needed, with the same grade of Gargoylle Mobiloil—you'll be free from lubrication worries on your tour.

THE PROBLEM OF THE AGES SOLVED WHEN PENNSYLVANIA CRUDE OIL WAS BROUGHT TO THE SURFACE

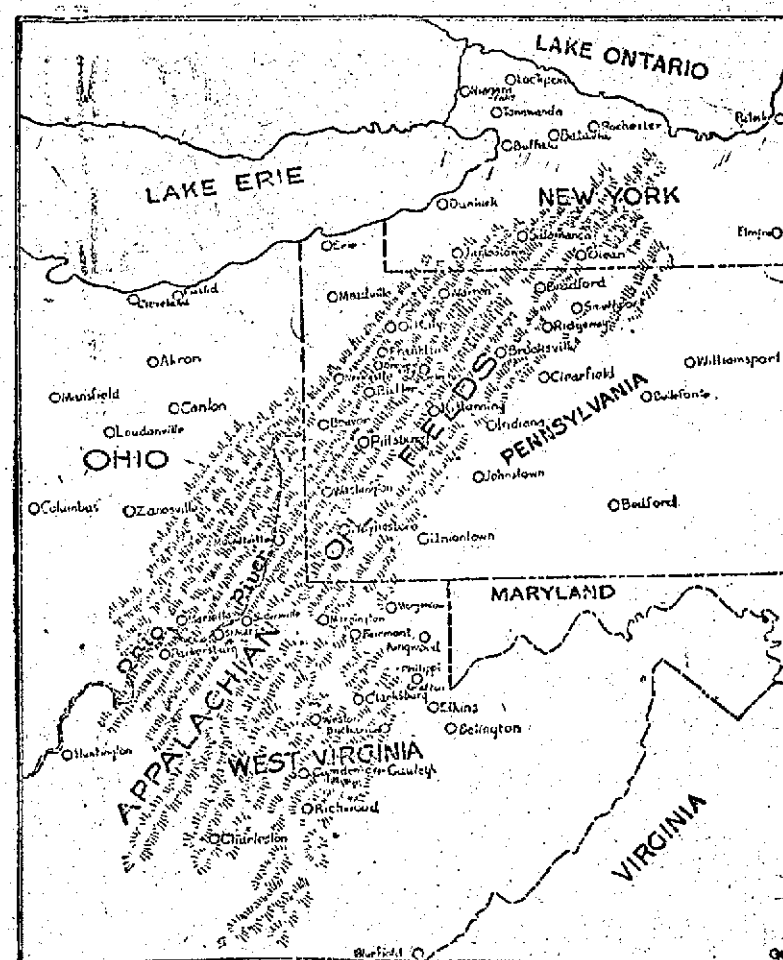

IN 1857 COL. EDWIN L. DRAKE started his quest for oil near Titusville, Pa., with a capital of $1,000. Well drillers and drilling machinery were unheard of at that time and hard to find. This inconvenience was costly in months of delay in erecting pump house and derrick.

The beginning was made in quick sand clay. At first, each hole made rapidly filled with water and caved in. Finally Colonel Drake originated the idea of driving an iron pipe through to bedrock. His success with it later made it the standard practice in oil fields.

After rock was reached, the actual drilling started. Three feet a day was the measure of progress. August 28, 1859, the well had reached the depth of 69 feet and the drill was working in coarse sand.

Uncle Billy Smith, Colonel Drake's assistant, was astonished one morning to find the well filled within a few feet of the surface with a dark fluid. He drew a sample of the liquid. It was oil!

The pumping apparatus was adjusted, and by noon the well was producing at the rate of twenty barrels a day. The problem of the ages was solved. The world's first oil well was producing!

A FEW FEET FROM WHERE COLONEL DRAKE drilled the world's first oil well there was a sawmill. A few years before he came to Titusville, the oil observed by a Prof. Gillman, had been skimmed from Oil Creek to lubricate the mill machinery. And since refineries can add nothing to an oil that was not present in its crude state, PENNSYLVANIA GRADE OIL IS STILL SUPREME!

PENNSYLVANIA GRADE CRUDE, the Highest Grade Oil in the World, is found only in what is known as the Appalachian Oil Fields, located in the southwestern corner of New York state, western part of Pennsylvania, southeastern corner of Ohio, and in West Virginia.

PENNSYLVANIA OIL was discovered first. In many cases, things first found come first in quality—strange, indeed, is the fact that after millions of barrels of oil were brought to the surface by "gusher" wells in other parts of the country, Pennsylvania Oil still stands first in quality.

Ask for and insist upon getting STERLING OILS, refined from 100 per cent Pure Pennsylvania Oil. It has an incomparable lubricating film that will not "break down" under intense heat. It is the lowest cost lubricant in the end because it has the least carbon and gives reliable and efficient lubrication. Don't buy any other. You will know it by the insignia mark in the corners of this advertisement. All first class filling stations and garages recommend and sell STERLING OILS.
